Foreword

The Aims of Stetson University

John B. Stetson University was conceived as an institution where education might be gained under Christian influences and ideals. From the start, it has been open equally to young men and women. The motto of the University is "Pro Deo et Veritate"—for God and Truth. The aim is to develop scholarship, culture, Christian character. To attain this ideal the University has a six-fold purpose: (1) to develop a health conscience, and, as far as possible, a program of physical and mental health for each student; (2) to develop a scholarly attitude and respect for creative effort; (3) to develop citizenship conscience; (4) to help each student find, and as far as possible prepare for, the particular vocation for which he is fitted by ability, aptitude, character; (5) to develop appreciation of beauty—in music, art, literature, nature, thought, living; (6) to develop dynamic Christian character. Every resource of the University is employed to this end.

The Educational Ideal at Stetson University

The educational ideal at Stetson is not dogmatic instruction but the promotion of learning and creative study. Emphasis is placed upon the development of a liberal culture. Faculty and students work together in the discovery and propagation of ideas. Students are encouraged to think for themselves, to develop intellectual curiosity, and to be self-reliant in the search for truth. They are trained to attack problems and to solve them, and are taught to distinguish between the essential and the non-essential. Their achievement is estimated in terms of their development of the powers of understanding and insight.

Stetson University a Standard Institution

John B. Stetson University is a fully accredited standard institution of learning, consisting of a College of Liberal Arts, a College of Law, a School of Music, and a School of Business. It is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, The Association of American Colleges, The American Council on Education, the Florida Association of Colleges and Universities, and the National Association of Schools of Music. The College of Law is a member of the Association of American Law Schools and is on the approved list of the American Bar Association.

Educational Program at Stetson University

I. An Accelerated Educational Program

The University operates under the quarter system on the basis of a four-quarter, year-round program. There is a liberal allowance for vacations—two weeks or more for the Christmas season, ten days between the Spring and Summer quarters, and a full month between the Summer and Fall quarters. Under this system a student may graduate in less than the traditional four-year period without any lowering of standards or any sacrifice in the quality of work done.

II. An Individualized Program

The University has also adopted an individualized program. In the place of the old system in which general requirements were laid down for all students with little regard for individual differences, there has been instituted a system of individualized requirements. The use of requirements as such has not been abandoned, but the method of using them has been changed. Instead of being laid down in advance and applied generally, requirements are set up for each individual, based upon his aptitudes, interests, and needs.

Such a system requires methods and devices for discovering individual aptitudes and interests and an organization for counselling students. A group of faculty members has been chosen and is organized to act as counsellors. A testing program is in use to supply the counsellors with needed information concerning individual students. This is supplemented by reports from the high schools from which the students come.

When a student enters the University he has an interview with members of the advisory council, which is supplied with all the information that has been gathered concerning the student. By means of this initial interview and others, from time to time, each student's educational program is worked out and directed. The student is not left free to wander about the educational highway following his own whims and notions, but he is guided along the way.

The new system is more difficult to administer than the old mechanical system, but the University believes that the advantages make it worth-while.

FACULTY ADVISORY SYSTEM

I. General:

A general advisory council to which every student, upon entering the University, will report for classification:

Dr. H. C. Garwood, Chairman, Dean of the University
Miss Etter M. Turner, Dean of Women
Miss Barbara Rowe, Registrar

II. Special:

1. Freshman students are assigned to designated faculty advisers who counsel with them during orientation week as to their overall plans and program of work. These advisors are concerned with the total problem of the student as he enters college for the first time. They are interested in getting him oriented to college life and in starting him off on a program that meets his interests and needs and that is in line with his abilities and aptitudes. They will be his constant advisors during his freshman year.
2. Other students, who have selected their major field of study, have their advisors, in the various schools and colleges, as follows:
 - a. School of Music—Dr. W. E. Duckwitz and associates in the School of Music.
 - b. School of Business—Dr. Charles Adam Fisher and associates in the School of Business.
 - c. College of Law—Dean L. A. Haslup and associates in the College of Law.
 - d. College of Liberal Arts. The College of Liberal Arts is divided into three divisions. The Chairman of each division, together with his associates in the division, will constitute the advisory group for the division.
 - a). The Humanities—Dr. W. Hugh McEniry and associates in the Division of the Humanities.
 - b). The Natural Sciences and Mathematics—Dr. J. F. Conn and associates in the division.
 - c). The Social Sciences—Dr. G. L. Lycan and associates in the division.

History of Stetson

In March, 1876, Mr. H. A. DeLand of Fairport, New York, came to Florida on a sightseeing trip. While visiting relatives living in a small unnamed settlement in the central part of the State, he was so impressed by the pleasant climate and beautiful scenery that he returned later the same year to make Florida his permanent home. From the first, he manifested an active interest in the growth and development of the small community where he had settled, and soon the village was named DeLand in his honor. Realizing the need for education for the young people of central Florida, in 1883, with the farsightedness of the progressive pioneer, Mr. DeLand established the DeLand Academy.

In the beginning, there were only a small group of students and one teacher, Dr. J. H. Griffith, and the first sessions were held in the Baptist Church. In 1884 the Academy moved into DeLand Hall, erected by Mr. DeLand, on what is now the campus of John B. Stetson University. Mr. DeLand proposed to the Florida Baptist Convention that if the Convention would contribute $10,000, he would donate $10,000 together with the property of the DeLand Academy. The offer was accepted and in 1885 the school became DeLand Academy and College.

In 1886 the attention of Mr. John B. Stetson, the hat manufacturer, was attracted to the thriving young college, and he gave freely of his time and his wealth toward its advancement. In 1887 a charter was obtained from the State incorporating the school as DeLand University. In 1889, at the request of Mr. DeLand, the name of DeLand University was changed to John B. Stetson University. It was not long before the University found additional friends. Buildings on the campus erected by them testify to their devotion to the cause of education in Florida and their confidence in the future of Stetson.

While the growth of the physical plant of the school was being provided for by financial aid, the scholastic standards, under the presidency of Dr. John F. Forbes (1885-1903), and later under the presidency of Dr. Lincoln Hulley (1904-1934), were not neglected. Through an affiliation with the University of Chicago from 1898 to 1910, recognition of the work of Stetson gave the founders support in their efforts to establish in Florida a university with standards equal to those of the best universities in the country. The College of Law was organized in 1900; in 1930 it was placed on the accredited list of the American Bar Association; in 1931 it was admitted to membership in the Association of American Law Schools. The University became a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools in 1932.

Under the guidance of Dr. William Sims Allen, who became president in 1934, the standards and the scholarship of the University have been raised and the physical equipment enlarged and improved. New cafeterias, new dining rooms, and new dormitories have been built to take care of the rapidly increasing enrollment; the campus has been beautified; the faculty has been greatly increased. In 1936 the University became a member of the National Association of Schools of Music.

General Information

LOCATION AND CLIMATE

The University is located at DeLand, Volusia County, Florida, about one hundred miles south of Jacksonville, and twenty-four miles from Daytona Beach. It may be reached by the Atlantic Coast Line Railway or the Florida Motor Lines. The site was chosen because it is on high pine land in a rolling country remarkable for its healthfulness, orange groves, native pine woods, and well-kept lands. The climate is delightful. People live out of doors in the sunshine the year around. Students who are unable, because of poor health, to attend college in the North find that they may here pursue their studies regularly and at the same time improve in health. Because of the climate and the high standards of the University many northern families have established homes here.

GROUNDS, BUILDINGS, AND EQUIPMENT

The University Campus of forty-three acres is situated on high land in the northern part of DeLand, a half mile from the center of town. The University is housed in sixteen buildings as follows: DeLand Hall, Stetson Hall, President's Home, Elizabeth Hall, Chaudoin Hall, Science Hall, the Central Heating and Lighting Plant, the Library, Conrad Hall, Cummings Gymnasium for Women, Hulley Gymnasium for Men, the Irving C. Stover Little Theatre, the Hulley Chimes Tower, the Commons Building, Stevens Hall, and Brittain Hall.

The value of these buildings and grounds, and their equipment, is approximately one million dollars. This does not include the productive endowment. The University owns an endowed library of approximately forty-five thousand volumes and four hundred periodicals that is rapidly growing and a separate law library of fourteen thousand volumes. It has an attractive chapel with a beautifully-toned pipe organ, a comprehensive and well arranged museum, ten laboratory rooms for chemistry, physics, biology, geology, and general science, a large assortment of costly appliances, well equipped iron shops, indoor gymnasium apparatus, enclosed athletic field, tennis courts, baseball diamond, and football gridiron, and has nearby facilities for golf, swimming, rowing, horseback riding, and other sports. The tennis courts to the rear of Cummings Gymnasium are the anonymous gift of a loyal friend of the University who lives in DeLand.

UNIVERSITY COMMONS

The University Commons has an attractively furnished lounge, two cafeterias, a grill room, kitchen, and storehouse. The building is used constantly for committee meetings and social gatherings. A la carte and special meals are always available, affording a variety of appetizing and nutritious foods at a low cost. Meals for special occasions and party refreshments may be had at the Commons upon advance notice. All meals are prepared by an experienced chef under the supervision of a trained dietitian. Only the best materials are purchased and meals are prepared under the most sanitary conditions, thus assuring substantial, wholesome, and appetizing food. Special diets may be arranged for through the dietitian at any time.

THE INFIRMARIES

The infirmary service of the University, under the direction of two competent graduate nurses, provides for the care of all minor illnesses and the relief of acute conditions which do not require special nursing. Supplementary to the services afforded by the University infirmary, a student may at his own expense secure any available physician he desires. In the event of serious illness the University always notifies the student's parents at once.

LABORATORIES

Biology Laboratories

The biology laboratories are located in the north end of the third floor of Elizabeth Hall. The largest laboratory, used for the introductory courses, contains five long tables so arranged as to receive a maximum amount of light from the north sky. Each table is also provided with four electric lights especially designed for use with the microscope. An excellent group of charts and lantern slides is also at hand as illustrative teaching aids. The smaller laboratories are equipped for advanced courses: the most modern apparatus such as incubator, hot air sterilizer, horizontal autoclave, etc., are provided for the use of a class as a unit, and in addition a locker containing a complete set of apparatus for individual use is supplied for each student.

Chemistry Laboratories

There are four well lighted rooms devoted to the chemistry laboratories. A private laboratory for the use of a professor is equipped with a desk, a hood, and all the other facilities necessary for special investigation. In the general laboratory table space is afforded for forty-two students to work at the same time, each student having his own equipment of glass and metallic apparatus. There are four hoods, a stock of chemicals, appliances, and facilities for individual use. In the organic laboratory, adjoining the general laboratory, each desk is equipped with running water, gas, and electricity. The physical chemistry laboratory room is used for more complex experiments. Readily accessible to all these laboratory rooms, there is a store room containing a large assortment of chemicals and a complete supply of modern, up-to-date chemical apparatus for performing all experiments.

Geology Laboratory

The Geology Laboratory is equipped with a fine set of wall maps and several hundred of the topographical sheets of the United States Geological Survey. A large number of minerals and fossils are available. The department has access to the Monroe Heath Museum.

Physics Laboratories

Ample equipment and space are available for experimental work in Physics. The general laboratory is adjacent to a large and modernly equipped stock room and contains desks for twenty-four students, each working with individual gas, water, and electrical connections. Two additional laboratories provide facilities for advanced students, and a private laboratory is available for research. Provision is made for the constant addition of new apparatus.

Engineering and Iron Shops

The Machine Shop contains a good assortment of electrically-driven engine lathes, hack saws, speed lathes, drill presses, a shaper, electrically-operated hack saw, milling machine, wet tool grinder, and a new equipment of choice working tools. The spacious Mechanical Drawing Room has a fine skylight. There are sixteen high, adjustable drawing stands, a filing cabinet for drawings, racks for drawing boards, and all the necessary apparatus for blueprinting.

THE MONROE HEATH MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY

The late Mrs. Monroe Heath, of Chicago, gave as a memorial to her husband, a comprehensive, well arranged museum of natural history, prepared by the well-known Ward Natural Science Establishment, of Rochester, New York. It is classified into three general divisions: Mineralogy, Geology, and Marine Biology.

THE MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS

Several years ago, through the generosity of friends, the University purchased a collection of about one hundred pictures with the purpose of starting an Art Museum. These pictures are the work of Messrs. Fluhart, T. C. Steel, Lucien Biva, Brument, Hiliare, M. D. Williams, Devieux, and represent French, Italian, German, and American work. The exhibit is placed in the Museum of Fine Arts in Elizabeth Hall.

THE STETSON BOOKSTORE

The Stetson Book Store is owned and operated by the University. It handles text books and supplies needed by the students. Books are sold at cost.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The Board of Trustees has fixed upon the sum of $5,000.00 as necessary to the establishment of a tuition scholarship in the University, good during the lifetime of the donor. Thereafter it goes to the general fund and bears the donor's name. The gift of this sum provides for the tuition of one student. Four such scholarships have so far been established—the A. D. McBride Scholarship, by the late A. D. McBride; the S. Elizabeth Stetson Scholarship, by the Countess of Santa Eulalia; the Marie Woodruff Walker Scholarship, by Mrs. Henrietta Dayton Walker; and the Carrie Fox Conrad Scholarship, by the late Mrs. Conrad.

By a vote of the Board of Trustees, the sum of $2,500.00 given to the University, provides free tuition to the extent of one hundred dollars, for one student. There is one such scholarship, the Mary E. Gunnison Scholarship, founded by Mrs. Otis N. Reichardt.

The University is glad to recognize the great work done for the State of Florida by the Christian ministry, and does all in its power to develop and strengthen that work. As a distinct recognition of the noble and unselfish labor so freely given to Florida by the ministers of the Gospel, free tuition scholarships to the extent of $120.00 per year, are offered to all endorsed candidates for the Baptist ministry.

Minor sons and daughters of active ministers who live in Florida are entitled as undergraduates to scholarships which pay half tuition.

A limited amount of work is available in the College of Liberal Arts, in the School of Music, and in the School of Business for worthy students whose parents are not able to pay full tuition. In such cases students must be recommended highly as to character and ability and must maintain an academic average of "C+" or better. Because of the added expense to the parents, such students will not be eligible for pledging or initiation into the social fraternities.

LOAN FUNDS

THE CROZER LOAN FUND

The University is indebted to the late Mrs. Mary S. Crozer, of Chester, Pennsylvania, for gifts which have been combined into a loan fund for students. Gifts from other persons have been added to this fund. Loans are made to deserving students under such conditions as will make the fund productive of the maximum of service.

THE HOLMES LOAN FUND

The Holmes Loan Fund, established by the late Dr. Robert Shailor Holmes, an honored trustee of the University, is to be used in assisting worthy students. It is hoped that the friends of the University and of Dr. Holmes will, from time to time, add generously to this fund.

PRIZES

THE JEANETTE THURBER CONNOR PRIZES

The late Mrs. Jeanette Thurber Connor of New York City, has given the University the sum of $1,000.00, the income from which is to be used to encourage the study of the history of Florida. Each year two prizes are offered for the two best original essays written by Stetson students on some aspect of Florida history. In the event none of the essays submitted are sufficiently meritorious to warrant awarding prizes, the income from the fund will be used for the purchase of books pertaining to the history of Florida. Books so purchased will have inscribed on the book plate the name of Mrs. Jeanette Thurber Connor and will become a part of the collection of books on Florida history in the University Library.

MORAL AND RELIGIOUS LIFE

Stetson University, founded by Christian men and women, is a Christian institution; its seal bears the motto, "For God and Truth." It is the Baptist University of Florida. The teachers are members of Christian churches. Every effort is made to promote a healthy moral and spiritual life.

CHAPEL SERVICES

Chapel services are held daily at 10:15 in the morning, are led by the President, and are primarily for divine worship. Attendance is required of all undergraduate students in the University.

CHURCH ATTENDANCE

All students are urged to attend Sunday school and church services on Sunday. The University co-operates to this end with all the churches in DeLand. On Sunday, work is suspended throughout the University and the office buildings, the laboratories, and the libraries are closed.

THE VESPER SERVICE

The Vesper Service is a non-denominational service sponsored by the Baptist Student Union Council and meets each evening at 6:30 in the Chapel. It seeks to strengthen the spiritual life of the student body.

STUDENT RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS

The following denominations on the campus are organized into student unions: Baptist, Episcopal, Methodist, and Presbyterian.

The Reverend O. Lafayette Walker is Director of Religious Activities on the campus.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

The work of the Baptist denomination is carried on among the students through the Baptist Student Union, which sponsors the Sunday School, the B. T. U., the Y. W. A., the Ministerial Association, and the Volunteers for Christian Service.

THE VOLUNTEERS FOR CHRISTIAN SERVICE

The Volunteers for Christian Service is an organization composed of students of all denominations who have dedicated themselves to a life of service to God. Membership is by invitation extended to those who indicate a desire for membership and a willingness to live up to the motto of the group "that in all things Christ might have pre-eminence." Meetings are devoted to instruction, inspirational talks, and plans for definite service.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

The Ministerial Association is composed of a group of young men who are studying for the Christian ministry. To be eligible for membership, the student must be either a licensed or an ordained minister or be recommended by a Christian Church as a candidate for the ministry. The association holds weekly meetings at which an outstanding minister or layman is invited to discuss some phase of ministerial activity. An effort is made to enlist each member in some place of service—preaching, teaching in Sunday Schools, or conducting study courses.

UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS

DORMITORY LIFE

All undergraduate women and freshmen men who do not live with their parents or guardians are required to room in the University dormitories and take their meals at the Commons.

All necessary furniture for dormitory rooms is provided by the University. Bed linen, blankets, towels, curtains, and rugs are furnished by the occupants. These articles should be labeled with indelible ink or name tapes.

For their protection and convenience students may deposit money in the Bursar's office. There is no charge for this service.

Rooms will be assigned to new students in the order of application upon receipt of proper references and the payment in advance of a deposit of $10.00. Deposits to reserve rooms for women should be sent to the Dean of Women; deposits to reserve rooms for men should be sent to the Director of Men's Dormitories. No room deposits will be refunded after August 1.

Students in residence have the privilege of reserving their rooms upon the payment in advance of a deposit of $10.00.

Rooms may be occupied on the day prior to the opening of the Fall quarter and must be vacated on the day following Commencement.

The women's dormitories are closed during the Christmas vacation period. During other vacations the Dean of Women reserves the right to place all women who remain on the Campus in any one of the University dormitories.

A five-dollar ($5.00) breakage deposit fee will be charged each student living in a University dormitory. At graduation, or upon permanent withdrawal before graduation, this deposit, minus individual or collective deductions, will be refunded.

Change of room assignments may not be made except with the consent of those in charge, and furniture may not be removed from one room to another.

Inquiry regarding rooms in the women's dormitories should be addressed to the Dean of Women; inquiry regarding rooms in the men's dormitories should be addressed to the Director of Men's Dormitories.

ACADEMIC CREDITS

The school year is divided into three quarters of twelve weeks each. The summer session comprises another quarter. The units of credit are as follows:

Major: The amount of credit given for the work completed in a course meeting one hour daily for a quarter. It is equivalent to three and one-third semester hours or five quarter or term hours.

Minor: One-half a major, equivalent to one and two-thirds semester hours or two and one-half quarter or term hours.

REGISTRATION

Time of Registration: Attention is called to the importance of registering at the opening of the quarter before instruction in the various classes begins. A fee of $2.50 is charged as a penalty for late registration. Students who enter after classes have begun are at a disadvantage. In order to receive credit in a given course the student must be enrolled in the course not later than the date set in the University calendar as the last day to register for credit.

Change of Registration: If a student desires to change his program of studies after registration, he must secure the approval of the Dean or Director of the college or school in which he is enrolled and his faculty adviser. During any quarter, courses dropped after the first week will automatically count as failures.

AMOUNT OF CLASS WORK ALLOWED

The normal load for each student is three majors each quarter. When there is a good reason, a student may be given permission to take less work. Students who are working more than three hours per day outside of school should not carry more than two majors. Students on academic probation will not be allowed to carry more than two majors. A student who passes all of his work and has an average of B or better any quarter may take more than the normal load the next quarter, provided: (1) That he shall have the approval of the chairman of his division and the Dean of the University; (2) That proper consideration is given the health of said student.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

Students are responsible directly to their instructors in the matter of class attendance. When, in the opinion of the instructor, a student is absent to the detriment of his scholastic achievement, the instructor shall notify the student to that effect and give written notice to the Registrar and the Dean of the University. If the student accumulates further absences, he shall, unless excused for illness or emergency, be dropped from the course, and shall be reinstated only upon recommendation of his instructor and the Committee on Admissions.

Students who qualify for the Dean's List and the Honor Roll, shall, during the succeeding quarter, be entitled to the privilege of optional attendance.

A student who is absent without excuse from one of his classes five consecutive times or who drops a course without permission, automatically suspends himself from the University. When the student's absences have been reported by the teacher, the Dean will inform the student that he has automatically suspended himself from the University and that he may be reinstated only by special permission and upon satisfactory re-classification.

CHAPEL ATTENDANCE

All undergraduate students, unless excused for some acceptable reason by the President, are required to attend Chapel daily. A credit of one quality point for each academic year is allowed for Chapel attendance. A record of attendance is kept in the Registrar's office. A student is permitted five absences from chapel without penalty. If he accumulates further absences, except in the case of sickness, one-fifth quality point is deducted for each absence over five.

ACADEMIC PROBATION AND SUSPENSION FOR FAILURE IN CLASS WORK

1. A student who fails as much as one-third of his work for two consecutive quarters will be given strict warning and put on academic probation for the next quarter he is in residence; and if said student fails one major of his work during the quarter he is on probation, he will be dropped from the University for one quarter.

2. With the exception of first-year students enrolled in college for the first time, a student who fails in two-thirds or more of his work any quarter will be dropped from the University for one quarter. A freshman who fails in two-thirds of his work any quarter will be placed on probation for the next quarter he is in residence; and if said student fails one major of his work while on probation, he will be dropped from the University for one quarter. A freshman who fails all of his work any quarter will be dropped from the University for one quarter.

3. A student who fails to make a C+ average for two consecutive quarters will be given strict warning and placed on probation for one quarter. If he fails to make a C+ average for the next quarter he is in residence, he will be dropped from the University for one quarter.

A student who is suspended a second time because of failure or unsatisfactory work may not re-enter the University except by permission of the Committee on Admissions.

A student may be released from probation after he has made a C+ average in all of his courses for one quarter. A student who reaches senior classification and is deficient in quality points will be put on probation until the number of quality points earned equals two for each major completed at Stetson.

Any student who re-enters the University after being suspended for failure to meet the terms of probation will automatically be placed on probation at the beginning of the first quarter he is in residence thereafter.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE UNIVERSITY

In event of ill health, or inability to pursue college duties, or some unavoidable necessity a student may request permission to withdraw from the University. It is earnestly requested that no parent or guardian withdraw his son or daughter for trivial causes immediately before quarter examinations. Request for withdrawal should be made to the President or the Dean of the University. Any student who withdraws without permission automatically suspends himself from the University and receives a failure in each of his subjects.

SCHOLARSHIP HONORS

HONOR ROLL

In order to encourage high scholarship, at the end of each quarter the University publishes an Honor Roll of students who do an exceptionally high grade of work. Students who carry a minimum of three majors (in the case of Law students, full time work) are eligible to be placed on the list: to qualify, undergraduates must make either a B+ average (i. e., 4.0 quality point average) or no grade below B; graduates, A.

DEAN'S LIST

Students of junior and senior standing who carry a minimum of three majors (in the case of Law students, full time work) and make an average of B+ (i. e., 4.0 quality point average), with no grade below B, during any quarter, and graduate students who carry a minimum of three majors and make all A's during any quarter, shall, during the succeeding quarter be placed on the Dean's List and shall be allowed optional class attendance.

GRADUATION HONORS

A student who has been in residence for at least two years and who has earned a 4.0 quality point average shall be graduated "Cum Laude" (with honor); a student who has been in residence for at least two years and who has earned a 4.5 quality point average shall be graduated "Magna Cum Laude" (with great honor). A student who has been in residence four years and who has earned a 6.0 quality point average shall be graduated "Summa Cum Laude" (with highest honor). The quality point average is the ratio of the number of quality points to the number of majors earned.

FRESHMAN ORIENTATION

In order to assist the Freshmen in adjusting themselves to the University life and environment a special orientation program preceding registration in September has been arranged for them. The administration, the faculty, and the various student organizations co-operate in every way possible to assist the Freshmen in adjusting themselves to college life and study. The friendly spirit on the Stetson Campus makes it easy for Freshmen to become acquainted with their new environment and with the traditions and ideals of the University. During orientation week, Freshmen will take placement, aptitude, and English tests, and on the basis of their scores on these tests they will be advised regarding their courses and will complete their registration. The Freshmen will be given an opportunity to meet and become acquainted with the administrative officers, the faculty, the student body officials, and the student government officials. The student social and religious organizations on the Campus all cooperate in helping the Freshmen orient themselves. All Freshmen must be present during Freshman Orientation (September 24-29, 1946).

GRADING SYSTEM, QUALITY POINTS, AND EXAMINATIONS

Grading System. All work is graded by letters which may be interpreted as follows: A+, A, excellent; B+, B, good; C+, fair; C, passed but below average; D, poor but passed; F, failure.¹ A course which has been failed must be repeated and passed before credit can be given. A course may not be repeated to raise a passing grade. In the event of incomplete work or absence from examination because of illness or other approved reason, a temporary grade of I will be given. This grade must be removed during the next quarter of residence or it automatically becomes an F. A grade of F will be given a student who absents himself from a regular scheduled final examination in any course except for illness or other satisfactory reason. Courses dropped after the first week of any quarter will automatically count as failures (a grade of XF).

If a 100 course is elected by a junior or senior, he must make a grade of B in the course to obtain credit.

Quality Points. Quality points are allowed on majors as indicated below. To graduate, a student must have not less than seventy-two quality points, or twice as many quality points as majors. If a student lacks quality points after having passed thirty-six majors, he will be required to take additional majors until he has earned at least two quality points for each major taken. The number of quality points allowed for each grade is as follows:²

A+.....6	B3	D..... 0
A5	C+.....2	F.....-1
B+.....4	C1	XF.....-1

Examinations. Final examinations are given at the conclusion of each quarter. A second examination is never allowed. In the event of absence from a final examination because of illness or other approved reason a deferred examination may be given. Before a student is allowed such examination, he must secure the approval of the Dean or Director of the college or school in which he is enrolled and pay the fee required. Final grades are based upon daily work, special reports, research papers, laboratory and field work, tests, and final examinations.

² Students who meet the requirement concerning Chapel attendance may earn one quality point each year. Those who meet the requirement concerning physical education may earn one quality point credit for an A grade, two-thirds quality point for a B grade, and one-third quality point for a C grade each quarter.

DEGREES

The University awards the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Laws, and Bachelor of Music. The requirements for these degrees are set forth in the sections of this catalogue dealing with the College of Liberal Arts, the College of Law, the School of Music, and the School of Business. Students who plan to graduate in August, 1946, must file formal application for a degree in the Office of the Registrar not later than July 2. Those who plan to graduate in December, 1946, must file application for a degree in the office of the Registrar not later than October 1; those who plan to graduate in March, 1947, not later than January 8; those who plan to graduate in June, 1947, not later than April 1.

ACCIDENT INSURANCE

As a service to the students, the University has entered into an agreement with The Preferred Accident Insurance Company which makes available medical reimbursement insurance to any regularly enrolled student at John B. Stetson University. This insurance covers any and all medical expenses due to injuries from accidents up to a maximum limit of $500.00 per accident. It is effective upon enrollment and arrival on the college campus and throughout the college year until the student leaves college. It covers any accident sustained during any vacation trip during the college year. The cost of this insurance is $10.00 per year for men and $5.00 per year for women students. Full details and application blanks will be sent with the college bills so that all who desire to do so may take advantage of this coverage. It should be noted that the University is in no way responsible financially for personal injuries incurred in athletic activities. Checks should be made payable to the Hon Agency, DeLand, Florida.

EXPENSES

The University operates on the quarter plan. The expense items given below are for each quarter unless otherwise noted. A discount of $5.00 is allowed on tuition when bills for the quarter are paid in full on or before the opening date. No discount is allowed for those who work, or hold scholarships, for full or part tuition.

INFORMATION CONCERNING CHARGES

Each student is charged for all damage done to furniture, or his room.

All students care for their own rooms.

In order to engage a room in advance each student must pay ten dollars. This amount will be deducted from the first bill rendered if the rooms are occupied promptly at the opening of the quarter; otherwise it will be forfeited. No refund on room deposits will be granted after August 1.

Drafts should be made payable to John B. Stetson University, and not to any individual or officer of the institution.

The University will accept local checks for the payment of all bills, but will not cash local checks for students. In sending money to students, parents should use New York or Chicago exchange, Post Office or Express Money Orders.

The University cannot furnish students money for sudden calls home. Money for such purposes must be on deposit with the Bursar.

Any student who withdraws, or who is requested to withdraw, from the University shall be charged at catalogue rates for one week in excess of the time actually enrolled.

Parents and guardians are reminded that there are no incidental expenses except those published in this catalogue. For a student to be liberally provided with spending money is rather disadvantageous than otherwise.

A safe is provided by the institution in which any valuables may be placed for safe keeping.

Any student who shall mark, cut, or otherwise deface any property belonging to the University, shall be assessed sufficiently to repair or replace the article damaged, and punished for the misdemeanor.

The Administration may, at any time, make a general assessment upon the entire student body to repair damages to property, the perpetrators of which cannot be discovered.

All bills must be arranged for at the Bursar's office at the beginning of each semester. Until this has been done, no registration card entitling the student to enter his class is valid.

The College of Liberal Arts

ADMISSION

The Committee on Admissions seeks to select students whose records of character, health, and scholarship give evidence of their possessing the qualifications for taking advantage of the opportunities afforded by John B. Stetson University. In selecting students the Committee takes into consideration the student's cultural background, his scholastic record, and the estimate of his character and ability to pursue college work furnished by the principal of the secondary school. Only students are admitted who give evidence of possessing qualities of character fitting them to give loyal adherence to the ideals and regulations of the University.

I. ADMISSION TO THE FRESHMAN CLASS:

1. An applicant for admission to the freshman class must be a graduate of an accredited secondary school with a minimum of fifteen units of credit, three of which must be in English.
2. Admission is based upon:
 - a. Scholastic record.
 - b. The scores made on the Achievement and Aptitude Tests.
 - c. Estimate of the student's ability and character furnished by the secondary school.
 - d. Personal qualifications.
3. The procedure to be followed in making application is as follows:
 - a. An applicant attending a Florida secondary school should secure application blanks and instruction for filling them out from his principal.
 - b. An applicant attending a secondary school not in Florida should send to the Registrar at Stetson for blanks to be used in applying for admission.
 - c. The application for admission (Form I) should be sent to the Registrar as early as possible. Credits should not be sent by the principals until after graduation from the secondary school.
 - d. Each applicant must have his family physician fill out in proper form a medical examination blank furnished by the Registrar.¹
 - e. A deposit of $10.00 is required to reserve a room: requests for room reservations for women should be sent to the Dean of Women; requests for room reservations for men should be sent to the director of Men's Dormitories. No room deposits will be returned after August 1.

¹ Each student may be required to furnish a record of physical examination annually.

4. Applications are not considered by the Committee on Admissions until the application, credits, and all other information required are in the hands of the committee. No applicant should consider himself as eligible to enroll in the University until he is notified by the Registrar that his application has been approved.

II. ADMISSION BY TRANSFER:

Applicants who have been in attendance at accredited colleges and universities may be admitted to advanced standing under the following conditions.

1. The applicant must be eligible to return to the college or university last attended and must have maintained a satisfactory academic record.
2. Credits will be accepted in so far as they represent courses equivalent to those offered in Stetson.
3. Credit will be given for work on which the applicant has made C grades or better.
4. Credit will be given for work on which the applicant has made D grades only after he has been in residence one full year and has passed full time work with an average of C+.
5. The procedure for making application is as follows:
 - a. The applicant should send to the Registrar at Stetson for application blanks.
 - b. The applicant should request the Registrar at the college or university he has attended to send to the Registrar at Stetson a transcript of his credits and a statement that he is in good standing and eligible to re-enter there. If the applicant has been in attendance at more than one college, transcripts must be sent by each college or university.
 - c. A deposit of $10.00 is required to reserve a room: requests for room reservations for women should be sent to the Dean of Women; requests for room reservations for men should be sent to the Director of Men's Dormitories. No room deposits will be returned after August 1.
 - d. No student should consider himself eligible to enter Stetson until he has been notified by the Registrar that his application has been approved.
 - e. No application will be considered until all credits and information are in the hands of the Committee on Admissions.

Applicants from non-accredited colleges, when admitted, will be placed on academic probation for one year. If at the end of the year the applicant has passed full-time work with an average grade of C+ (2.0 quality point average), he will receive full credit for all courses completed at the institution from which he transfers that are equivalent to courses offered at Stetson.

III. ADMISSION OF SPECIAL STUDENTS:

A limited number of persons of at least twenty-one years of age may be admitted as special students provided they secure:

1. The recommendation of the professor whose work they wish to take, and
2. The approval of the Dean of the University.

They must give evidence that they possess the ability and preparation to pursue as special students the courses they desire to take.

IV. ADMISSION BY EXAMINATION:

Applicants who have graduated from non-accredited secondary schools or who cannot establish entrance credits may be admitted by examination. These entrance examinations will be given immediately before the opening of each academic year. A person twenty-one years of age or older who is unable to establish entrance credits may take a comprehensive entrance examination.

For further information write to the Registrar.

REQUIREMENTSI. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS:

A minimum of thirty-six majors is required for the A. B., B. S., or B. M.¹ degree, twelve² of which must be of junior-senior rank. Certain courses are required of all students in the University who receive degrees. They are:

English ³	two majors
Religion	one major
Physical Education ⁴	two years

Language Proficiency Requirement (see page 114).

II. SPECIALIZATION REQUIREMENT:

Each department of the University constitutes a field of concentration. A student's program will consist of (1) a selected field of concentration in which he will major,⁵ (2) related subjects and other subjects prescribed, advised, or needed for specific purposes, and (3) free electives of sufficient number to make a total, together with the general course-requirements, of not less than thirty-six majors.

¹ For further requirements see the section of the catalog devoted to the School of Music.

² In extraordinary instances, if a student is a candidate for the B. S. degree with a laboratory science as his major subject, exceptions to this ruling may be made when approved by the Chairman of the division and the Dean of the University.

³ Any student who can pass a satisfactory examination in English 101 when he enters the University will be excused from this requirement. However, if he passes this examination, he may not claim credit for the course.

⁴ All students, except in extraordinary instances, are required to take physical education three hours per week for two years.

There are several possibilities open to the student as to his field of concentration:

- a. A single field may be selected.
- b. A combination of fields, involving two or more departments, may be arranged to meet special needs.

Not more than twelve majors may be taken for credit in any one department, except in certain instances specified elsewhere in this catalogue. The student should study carefully the special requirements and suggestions stated under the head of the division and department in which his work will be concentrated.

III. QUALITY POINT REQUIREMENT:

An average grade of C+ (2.0 quality point average) is required. A minimum of 72 quality points is required for graduation.¹

IV. RESIDENCE REQUIREMENT:

A full year of residence work (nine majors) in Stetson is required for the A. B. or the B. S. degree, and, in all instances, the last six majors of the senior year must be done in residence.

V. PRE-PROFESSIONAL² CURRICULAR REQUIREMENTS:

For an outline of the requirements of the various pre-professional courses offered in Stetson the student is referred to the divisional and departmental sections of this catalogue, where such outlines are to be found, as noted below:

1. Teacher-Training—
Division of the Social Sciences, Department of Education, pp. 82-91.
2. Pre-Seminary Course—
Division of the Humanities, Department of Religion, pp. 52-54.
3. Pre-Engineering Course—
Division of the Natural Sciences, Department of Engineering, pp. 67-68.
4. Pre-Medical Course—
Division of the Natural Sciences, pp. 57-59.
5. Pre-Laboratory Technology Course—
Division of the Natural Sciences, p. 60.
6. Pre-Dental Course—
Division of the Natural Sciences, p. 61.
7. Combination Course for Nurses—
Division of the Natural Sciences, pp. 61-62.

¹Any student who has completed the 36 majors required for a Bachelor's degree but who has fewer than 72 quality points may take additional courses to make up the quality points lacking, but such student must have twice as many quality points as majors undertaken (including all courses failed) before he is permitted to graduate.

²For professional courses in Secretarial Science and Business see the School of Business.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MASTER'S DEGREE

1. All graduate work in John B. Stetson University is under the general supervision of a graduate council of ten members.
2. A Bachelor of Arts or a Bachelor of Science degree from Stetson or an equivalent degree from some other accredited institution is a prerequisite.
3. One full academic year of graduate study in residence is required. Ordinarily, to complete the course requirements, to write a satisfactory thesis, and to prepare for the final comprehensive oral examination, a student needs a full academic year and one summer session. Under no circumstances will the Master's degree be awarded without a full year spent in residence.
4. A reading knowledge of at least one Modern Foreign Language is strongly recommended as a prerequisite, and may be required at the option of the department in which the student majors.
5. At the beginning of his graduate study for the Master's degree, the candidate must have his program of courses approved by the Chairman of the Graduate Council and the heads of the departments in which he plans to study. Courses which may be counted toward the Master's degree must be preceded by five majors of undergraduate work in the subject, two of which must be of junior-senior rank.
6. Admission to graduate study does not imply admission to candidacy for a degree. A student is admitted to candidacy for the Master's degree on the following grounds only:
 1. Completion of one quarter or one summer session of graduate study in Stetson.
 2. Written recommendation of the candidate's major professor.
 3. Approval of the Chairman of the Graduate Council.
7. The courses offered for the Master's degree ordinarily must be selected from two departments and must form a consistent plan of work, not fewer than five majors to be in the major subject and not fewer than two in the minor subject. However, when not more than five majors are taken in the major subject, the other four majors may be grouped advantageously around two centers of interest, constituting an associated minor and an independent minor. The Graduate Council may, in special instances, allow all the work to be done in one department. B shall be the minimum passing grade.
8. All the work for the Master's degree should, if possible, be done within a period of two years, and all of it must be done within a period of seven years. However, an excessive number of hours for credit is never allowed.

9. In addition to nine majors of residence work, the candidate for the Master's degree must write a satisfactory thesis upon an approved subject, showing ability for research and power of independent thought. The candidate must submit three copies of his thesis, bound in a form approved by the Graduate Council: one copy is to be retained by the candidate, one to be presented to the professor who has directed the candidate's research on which the thesis is based, and one to be deposited in the University Library. The thesis must be in final form and ready for binding not later than the date given in the University Calendar for the approval of Masters' theses preceding the Commencement at which the degree is to be conferred.
10. A candidate for the Master's degree in the field of teacher education may choose either one of the following plans: (1) he may offer nine majors and a thesis as outlined in paragraph 7, or, (2) he may offer twelve courses without a thesis, eight of the twelve being in the major subject. He will also be required to pass a comprehensive oral examination.
11. Two majors, or the equivalent, of graduate work done in other colleges and universities will be credited toward the nine majors required for the Master's degree on the following conditions: 1. The school in which the credits are earned must be on the approved list of the Association of American Universities. 2. Written approval of the candidate's major professor. 3. Approval of the Chairman of the Graduate Council. 4. The acceptance of such credits shall not reduce the one full year of study in residence required for the Master's degree.
12. After the completion of the courses and the thesis required for the degree, the candidate must take an oral examination covering the fields of his graduate study, conducted by a committee representing the Graduate Council, the departments in which graduate work has been taken, and one other department in the University. Preliminary to this oral examination, a comprehensive written examination in the student's major subject may, at the option of the head of the department, be required.
13. Each candidate for the Master's degree must prepare a typewritten brief of his courses together with an abstract of his thesis and file six copies of each with the Chairman of the Graduate Council three weeks before the time set for the comprehensive oral examination.

CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS IN THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

In the College of Liberal Arts students are classified as regular, part-time, and special. A regular student is a student registered as a candidate for a degree who carries a minimum of two majors; a part-time student is a student who is registered as a candidate for a degree who carries less than two majors; a special student is a student who is not eligible to register as a candidate for a degree. The classification of regular and part-time students is based on achievement as follows:

Freshman: a student who has 15 entrance units and a certificate of graduation from an accredited secondary school.

Sophomore: a student who has passed nine majors with a minimum of eighteen quality points.

Junior: a student who has passed eighteen majors with a minimum of thirty-six quality points.

Senior: a student who has passed twenty-seven majors with a minimum of fifty-four quality points.

DIVISIONS IN THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

- I. The Humanities—Subjects relating to the expression and communication of ideals and values. Dr. W. Hugh McEniry, chairman. (Art, Drama and Speech, English, French, German, Greek, Latin, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Spanish.)
- II. The Natural Sciences—Subjects relating to the physical world. Dr. John F. Conn, chairman. (Biology, Chemistry, Engineering, Geology, Mathematics, Physics.)
- III. The Social Sciences—Subjects dealing with man in his social relations. Dr. Gilbert L. Lycan, chairman. (Economics, Education,¹ Geography, Health and Physical Education,¹ History Journalism, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology.)

Courses in the various Schools and Divisions are designated by the following symbols:

Art	At	History	Hy
Biology	By	Journalism	Jm
Business Administration	Bn	Latin	Ln
Chemistry	Cy	Mathematics	Ms
Classical Languages	Cs	Music	Mc
Economics	Es	Philosophy	Py
Education	En	Physical Education	Pn

German	Gn	Sociology	Sy
Greek	Gk	Spanish	Sh
Health and Phys. Ed.	Hpe	Speech	Sp

¹ Education, and Health and Physical Education are to be represented in the advisory group of each of the three divisions. The descriptions of the courses in these two departments, however, will be found in the division of the Social Sciences.

DIVISION OF THE HUMANITIES

Unless a student elects as his college program the major in Humanities outlined below, the division makes no subject matter requirements other than those stipulated by the department in which the student elects a major subject and those required by the University for every student.¹ The division does require that twelve majors of the student's program be composed of junior-senior work in the subjects he may select. The division also requires that no student register for more than one major in any one subject in any one quarter. Exceptions may be made to this rule at a called meeting of the division, at which time the request for increased concentration in one subject must be presented for discussion. The Division of the Humanities recommends that each student, and particularly men students, include two majors of mathematics in his program of study.

For those students who wish to concentrate their work in the Humanities Division, a course of study has been arranged which will lead to the degree of Bachelor of Arts with a major in Humanities. The program is not intended to be a strict outline of the student's work. In many cases, previous training will eliminate the necessity for some of the prescribed courses, while in others it may be advantageous to bolster a weak background with more courses in one field than are required in the following list. Every effort will be made to suit the course of study to the individual needs of the student selecting this plan.

A MAJOR IN HUMANITIES ²

Modern Languages	8	majors
English	6	majors ³
History of Art	1½	majors
Speech	2	majors
Laboratory Science (Chemistry, Biology, Physics)	3	majors
History	4	majors

Philosophy (Two further majors are recommended)	2	majors

Total 31½ majors
Elective 4½ majors

Total for Graduation 36 majors

¹ In the Modern Languages, each department sets up its own specific requirements for a departmental or subject major.

² All the general requirements of the University are included.

³ Included in the English requirement are the two majors required by the University of every student.

DEPARTMENT OF ART

The Department of Art offers technical, educational, and appreciation courses. The student's creative and technical abilities are developed to the greatest degree in the drawing, painting, design, and commercial art classes. The course in art history is open, not only to art majors, but to any student interested in it from the cultural point of view. Interior decoration and fashion drawing courses are also offered to those interested in this phase of art. At103, 104 (Public School Art) is open to students preparing to teach in the elementary grades. Sufficient courses are offered so that a student may receive an A. B. degree majoring in Art.

In addition to the general requirements of the University, nine majors in art are required for a major in this department. It is also recommended that the student take the following courses:

English	4 majors
Ancient History	2 majors
Religion	1 major
Foreign Language	4 majors
Music Appreciation	1 major

A course scheduled for one quarter carries one major of credit; a course scheduled for two quarters carries one major of credit for each quarter. At209, 210 and At103, 104 each carry a major for the full quarter and a minor, or half-major, for the half-quarter scheduled.

At103, 104. Public School Art. A course of study in art education for the first six grades. Emphasis is placed upon developing the child's appreciation and creative ability, through drawing, design, color, and craft work. Fee, three dollars. Last half Winter quarter and Spring quarter.

At105, 106. Drawing and Painting. A comprehensive course in the technique of drawing and painting with a variety of mediums including: pencil, pastels, lithographic crayons, watercolors, and oils. Drawing and painting will be done from the model, still life, and landscape. Fee two dollars per quarter. Fall and Winter.

At205, 206. Drawing and Painting. A continuation of the work done in At105, 106, with emphasis on creative composition. Fee, two dollars per quarter. Fall and Winter.

At209, 210. History of Art. A study of the development of the visual arts, architecture, sculpture, painting and the minor arts from pre-historic to modern times. This course, or its equivalent required of all art majors. Fee, one dollar per quarter. Fall and first half Winter quarter.

At301. Interior Decoration. A study of the basic principles of interior decoration dealing with the arrangement, color harmonies, and decoration of the home. A history of period furniture and a study of modern trends in home decoration is included. Practice is given in the rendering of house plans and elevations. Fee, two dollars per quarter. Spring.

At303, 304. Principles of Commercial Art. Fundamental training in the principles underlying all types of commercial art. The course includes instruction in lettering, poster making, magazine and newspaper illustration, and gift card designing. The problems are worked out for reproduction in a professional manner. The student's creative, as well as his technical, ability is developed. Fee, three dollars per quarter. Fall and Winter.

At305, 306. Drawing and Painting. An advanced course in drawing and painting. A study of current tendencies in painting will be made with a view to aiding the student in his own creative work. Fee, two dollars per quarter. Fall and Winter.

At310. Fashion Illustration. A study of the essentials of Fashion Art, including materials, methods, and techniques. Original costumes, in various mediums, are designed by the student in an attempt to develop his individualized style. Both current and historic fashions are studied. Fee, two dollars. Spring.

At311. Fashion Illustration. A continuation of At310 with emphasis on creative work in the fashion field. Fee, two dollars. Spring.

At403, 404. Advanced Commercial Art. A continuation of the work done in At303, with emphasis on advanced composition as applied to commercial illustrations of various kinds. Layouts are made for local shops. Principles of design and psychological appeal of advertisements are stressed. Fee, three dollars per quarter. Fall and Winter.

At405, 406. Painting. A continuation of At305, 306, with emphasis on mural and portrait painting. For advanced students only. Fee, two dollars per quarter. Fall and Winter.

DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICAL LANGUAGES AND LITERATURE

GENERAL COURSES

Each course number carries a credit of one major.

Cs101, 102. Mythology. A knowledge of Greek or Latin is not required for this course, which will include a study of both Greek and Roman mythology. The origin of myths, their connection with the daily life of the ancients, the relationship of religion and mythology, and the influence of mythology upon English literature will be the chief topics for study. Offered on demand.

Os331, 332. Classical Literature in Translation. A course devoted to a study, in English translation, of the chief literary works of the greatest classical writers. Types of ancient literature, and their influence upon subsequent writers, especially the English, will be studied. No knowledge of Greek or Latin is required. Fall and Winter.

GREEK

Each course number carries a credit of one major.

Gk101-102. Elementary Greek. The aim of these courses is to provide for the student such mastery of basic vocabulary, inflection, and syntax as will enable him readily and intelligently to begin the reading of the simple Gospel narratives in the original. Fall and Winter. Offered 1946-1947.

Gk301. The Gospel Narratives. Most of the time is given to the Gospel of Mark, which is supplemented by noteworthy passages from other Gospels. Intelligent oral reading of the text receives attention as well as translation. Fall. Offered 1947-1948.

Gk302. The Acts and Various Epistles. Selections from the Acts of the Apostles illustrate Luke's literary style, supplement the Gospel narratives, and give outstanding incidents in the careers of Peter and Paul. Selections from various epistles introduce new themes and styles, in some cases more abstract and involved than material earlier studied. Winter. Offered 1947-1948.

Each course number carries a credit of one major.

Ln301. Drama: The Comedies of Plautus and Terence. A study of the development of comedy, of the relationship of Roman to Greek comedy, of the contrast in the Latin of Plautus and Terence, and reading of selected plays. Offered on demand.

Ln302. Roman Biographical Literature. This course will deal with the development of biography as a literary form, and will include the translating of selected passages from Tacitus and Suetonius. Offered on demand.

Ln303. Roman Law. Translation of selected passages from Roman legal literature will be the major part of the course. Incidental study of the historical development of Roman law will be made. Offered on demand.

Ln304. Horace. A detailed study will be made of the life and literary works of this genial poet. Selected Odes and Epodes will be read. Offered on demand.

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

The purpose of the work in the department of English is to further the students' acquaintance with the principles and practice of composition, to familiarize them with important currents of literary history, and to develop an appreciation of literature. To major in English a student must take, in addition to Eh101 and 102, eight majors in the department.

Although the following requirements are not to be understood as a strict program to which every student who majors in English must adhere, the department feels that some sample course of study will be valuable to a student in choosing his program. The list of courses set out below is suggestive rather than restrictive.

A Program for a Major in English

English	10 majors
History	4 majors
Laboratory Science	3 majors
Religion	1 major
Philosophy or Psychology	2 majors
Modern Foreign Language	4 majors

Total 26 majors

Elective 10 majors

Total for Graduation 36 majors

If a student shows sufficient preparation in any one of these requirements, or a special desire to concentrate his work in another way, his plan will be given careful consideration. Each course number carries a credit of one major.

Eh101. Composition. Abundant practice based on the systematic study of correct and effective writing, and on the examination of the characteristics of the best recent and contemporary prose. In the selection of examples for study and subjects for writing, primary consideration is given to timeliness and interest. The first weeks of the quarter will be devoted to a review of the fundamentals of grammar and punctuation. Required of all freshmen.¹ Fall, Winter, and Spring.

Eh102. Readings in Prose. A study of the major prose types, both fiction and nonfiction. Particular attention will be given to modern prose. Readings will range from the essay to the novel. Required of all freshmen. Fall, Winter, and Spring.

¹ Freshmen who pass the exemption examination, given on request, will not be required to enroll for Eh101. This exemption, however, does not carry credit toward a degree.

Eh201, 202. A Survey of English Literature. A survey of English literature from Beowulf to Thomas Hardy in connection with a study of the types of literature and principles and methods of literary interpretation and appreciation. Eh201, Winter. Eh202, Fall, Winter, and Spring.

Eh301, 302. American Literature. Two consecutive courses devoted to the study of the chief American works in verse and prose, arranged in one approximately chronological series. Fall and Winter.

Eh303. British Poetry of the Romantic Period. Introductory consideration of the beginnings of Romanticism and detailed study of the poetry of Wordsworth, Coleridge, Scott, Byron, Shelley, and Keats. Class discussion of the text supplemented by student notes on biographical and critical reading. Fall.

Eh304. British Poetry of the Victorian Period. A continuation of Eh303. Chief emphasis will be placed on the work of Tennyson and Browning. Winter.

Eh306. Victorian Prose Masters. Chief attention will be given to selected works of Macaulay, Carlyle, and Ruskin. Spring.

Eh315. The Eighteenth Century. A study of the leading figures in the development of English literature during the eighteenth century. Prose, poetry, and drama will be considered. Among the works surveyed will be those of Dryden, Pope, Swift, and Johnson. Spring.

Eh319. Development of the American Novel. A study of the evolution of the American novel. Introductory work will lead to an understanding of the novel as art, and to sound bases for critical study of the novels to be read in the course. Hawthorne, Melville, Twain, James, Lewis, Dreiser, and Hemingway will be among those studied. Fall.

Eh320. Development of the English Novel. Characteristics of prose fiction as a literary type; the development of prose fiction before the nineteenth century illustrated by selections; reading and class discussion of representative nineteenth century novels including the period of Dickens, Thackeray, and George Eliot. Winter.

Eh323, 324. Creative Writing. A course designed to provide practice and guidance for those students interested in creative writing. Particular attention will be given to writing short stories and essays. The work of the students will be used as a basis for class criticism. Individual conferences with the instructor will be encouraged. Admission to the course by permission of the instructor. Offered on demand.

Eh326. Modern Poetry. A study of American poetry from Walt Whitman to the present day. Particular attention will be given to the "new" poetry which appeared early in the twentieth century. Emphasis will be placed on Vachel Lindsay, Edwin Arlington Robinson, Carl Sandburg, Amy Lowell, Edgar Lee Masters, and Robert Frost. Spring.

Eh327. American Nonfiction Prose. A study of the prose writers of this country who have influenced its political, social, philosophical, and religious thinking. Jonathan Edwards, Roger Williams, Thomas Jefferson, Thomas Paine, Henry David Thoreau, Ralph Waldo Emerson, and Walt Whitman will be among those studied. Fall.

Eh331, 332. Classical Literature in Translation. (For full description of course see Cs331, 332.)

Eh406. Milton. A careful survey of Milton's poetry with brief attention given to his prose. Milton will be studied as an exponent of the life and thought of the seventeenth century. Spring.

Eh407, 408. Shakespeare. A study in approximately chronological order of plays representative of Shakespeare's work from Love's Labor's Lost to The Winter's Tale, with emphasis on the great tragedies, and supplementary readings in Pre-Shakespearean drama, ancient and British. Fall and Winter.

Eh411. Chaucer. A study of Chaucer's life and times. The course will be devoted to an examination of selections from the Canterbury Tales. A reading knowledge and appreciation of Chaucer's work are the aims of the study. Spring.

Eh417. Main Currents in Literary Criticism. This course is designed to give an understanding of the principles of literary criticism necessary to the comprehension and appreciation of literature. Among the critical theories discussed will be those of Plato, Aristotle, Horace, Sidney, Milton, Boileau, Goethe, Sainte-Beuve, Tolstoy, and James. Winter.

Eh475, 476, 477. Research. A course designed primarily for graduate students who wish to carry out a program of advanced work in a particular field. The course will be handled through conferences and will depend on the student's ability to do independent work and to present his results in acceptable papers. By permission of the instructor. Offered on demand.

DEPARTMENT OF MODERN FOREIGN LANGUAGES

The purpose of the work in Modern Foreign Languages is to enable the student to understand the thought and the way of life of the people of the language studied and to develop an appreciation of their literature. Students majoring in this department should have some knowledge of European History. A knowledge of formal grammar is desirable in order to understand fully the structure of the new language studied.

FRENCH

Students who have had no French will register for Fh101. Admission to the other courses will be determined by the individual student's ability and previous training. In addition, the student must secure the permission of the professor in charge. Advanced courses are given largely in French.

In addition to the general requirements set forth by the University, a student majoring in French will be required to have eight majors in French above the first year's work. It is suggested that the student also take at least two majors in advanced English, two majors in European History, one and one-half majors in History of Art, two majors in Speech, and two majors in Philosophy.

A student wishing to have a combined major in French and Spanish will be required to take twelve majors in the two languages: eight in one and four in the other or six in each.

Not all of the courses listed below will be given during a single year, but will be offered in rotation to provide for the needs of students desiring to major in French. Each course number carries a credit of one major.

Fh101. Elementary French. The primary aim will be to teach the student to read, with a minimum of grammar, easy passages from contemporary French literature and newspaper articles. Special attention will be given to pronunciation. Fall, Winter and Spring.

Fh102. Elementary French. Oral reading, vocabulary building, and a further study of the essentials of grammar. Fall, Winter, and Spring.

Fh206. Intermediate Reading and Grammar. Fall.

Fh209. Conversation. Fall.

Fh301, 302. A Survey of French Literature. Special attention is given to the main literary movements; reading, discussion, and reports on representative works of each period. Winter and Spring.

Fh303, 304. French Civilization. A course designed to give the student a better understanding of France, its institutions, and its culture. Fall and Winter.

Fh307. French Short Story. Special emphasis will be placed upon the French short story of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. There will be opportunity for abundant practice in translation and composition. Spring.

Fh309. French in the English Language. This course is open to all students. No French prerequisite. It is primarily a study of the French words and phrases in current use in conversation and literature. Offered on demand.

Fh310. French Novel. This course is open to all students. No French prerequisite. A study will be made of the French novel commencing with the early metrical romances. Special attention will be given to contemporary works. Novels studied may be read in the original or in translation. Reports may be made either in English or in French. Offered on demand.

Fh311. Methods of Teaching Foreign Languages in High School and Grades. Offered on demand.

Fh313. A Survey of Non-dramatic French Poetry. A study will be made of the different types of poetry and versification with special attention to oral reading. Fall.

Fh317. Contemporary French Theatre. Winter and Spring.

Fh322. Advanced Conversation. The aim of this course is to familiarize the student with current idiomatic French. Material will be selected from contemporary French books and periodicals. Offered on demand.

Fh417. Advanced Translation. This course is designed to give a practical working knowledge of the French language and to aid those students who wish employment in censorship or as translators. Offered on demand.

GERMAN

Students who have had no German will register for Gn101. Students who have had only one year of high school German will register for Gn102. Admission to the other courses will be determined by each student's ability and previous training.

Students majoring in German are required to take eight majors in German above the first year's work and a course in European History. In addition, it is recommended that work in such related fields as English or a Classical Language, or a second Modern Foreign Language be taken. Each course number carries a credit of one major.

Gn101, 102. Elementary German. Grammar, pronunciation, conversation, dictation, reading of easy prose and poetry. Gn101, Fall. Gn102, Fall and Winter.

Gn201, 202. Intermediate German. Short stories and grammar review. Offered on demand.

Gn203. Conversation. A course open to all students who have had two or more quarters of German. This course is recommended for students majoring in German. Offered on demand.

Gn205, 206. Scientific German. Gn205, Winter and Spring. Gn206, Spring.

Gn309. The Classical Period. Critical study of the works of Lessing, Goethe, and Schiller; reports in German. Offered on demand.

Gn403, 404. The German Drama. The drama from Lessing to the present time; discussion and reports in German. Offered on demand.

Gn407, 408. The Nineteenth Century. The Romantic movement; Young Germany; the Naturalists. Discussions and reports in German. Offered on demand.

Gn411, 412. The Novel. A critical study of the novel from Goethe's Werther to the present time. Discussions and reports in German. Offered on demand.

SPANISH

Students who have had no Spanish will register for Sh101. Admission to the other courses will be determined by each student's ability and previous training. Advanced courses are given largely in Spanish.

A student majoring in Spanish will be required to have eight majors of Spanish above the first year's work. It is suggested that the student also take two majors in advanced English, two majors in History (preferably European or Latin American), one and one-half majors in History of Art, and two majors in Speech.

A student wishing to have a combined major in Spanish and French will be required to take twelve majors in the two languages: eight in one and four in the other or six in each. Each course number carries a credit of one major.

Sh101. Elementary Spanish. Drill in pronunciation, dictation, first essentials of grammar, reading, oral expression. Fall and Winter.

Sh102. Elementary Spanish. Further study of grammar, reading, vocabulary building, oral and written practice. Winter and Spring.

Sh201. Intermediate Conversation. Development of facility in self-expression and the use of a practical vocabulary. Spring.

Sh202. Intermediate Grammar and Reading. Grammar review, prose readings from modern authors, vocabulary building, conversation. Fall.

Sh203. Commercial Spanish. Practical conversation, readings in the field of Hispanic American economic geography, elements of commercial correspondence. Spring.

Sh301, 302. Oral and Written Spanish. Conversation based on contemporary books and periodicals, systematic practice in writing on current topics in idiomatic Spanish. Two minors. Winter.

Sh305. Survey of Hispanic American Civilization. The social, political and cultural development of Hispanic America. Fall.

Sh307. Readings in Spanish American Literature. Study of outstanding movements and authors, reading and discussion of selected masterpieces, reports in Spanish. Winter.

Sh314. Readings in Contemporary Spanish Literature. Lectures, discussions, and reports in Spanish. Offered on demand.

Sh401, 402. Advanced Conversation and Phonetics. Two minors. Spring.

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

Philosophy aims to investigate the facts and principles of reality, and of human nature and conduct; to pursue the quest for truth; and to develop appreciation for the worth of human thought.

Py201. Ethics: The Principles of Right Conduct. A study of human conduct and the standards of right and wrong. The course endeavors to assist students in dealing with problems confronting them in contemporary society, especially in business and professional careers. Codes of ethics of various professions will be carefully considered. Not offered 1946-1947.

Py204. Logic: The Principles of Correct Thinking. The purpose of this course is to train the beginner in habits of correct thinking as a foundation for his later studies. Special attention will be given to analysis and criticism of arguments, to weighing evidence, to detection of fallacies, and to clearness and accuracy of statement. Not offered 1946-1947.

Py303. History of Philosophy: Ancient. Philosophical thought from its origin among the Greeks to the end of the Ancient World; the most important systems in their cultural context and their application to social, religious, and educational problems. Fall.

Py304. History of Philosophy: Medieval. A study of the outstanding philosophers from St. Augustine to Francis Bacon. Winter.

Py304. History of Philosophy: Modern. The course of philosophical thought from Bacon and Descartes to the present: its implications for political science, religion, and education. Spring.

Py405. Philosophy of Education. (For full description of course see En405.)

DEPARTMENT OF RELIGION

The courses in this department are neither theological nor sectarian, but cultural, and therefore open to all students. The aims are: knowledge and appreciation of the Bible; knowledge of the meaning and progress of Christianity in the world; an understanding of the meaning of religion in human experience; and, knowledge of the principles involved and skill in communicating and teaching religion.

The University requires every student to take one major of religion. Any of the courses offered may be used to meet this requirement. Those who choose to major in religion should confer with the head of the department. In general, it is advisable to combine with the study of religion, courses in English and American Literature, Ancient and European History, and Sociology.

Each course number carries a credit of one major unless otherwise noted.

Rn101. Old Testament History. A course designed to give the student a comprehensive view of the general historical facts of Hebrew life and religion. Fall, repeated in Winter.

Rn102. New Testament History. A comprehensive study of the history of the founding and early development of Christianity. It includes a brief survey of the conditions of the Graeco-Roman world as they affected the Jewish people during the Inter-biblical and first-century periods. Winter, repeated in Spring.

Rn205. History and Development of Religious Education. A survey of the history, development, and character of religious education, beginning with the ancient Hebrews and coming down to modern times. Special attention is given to the Sunday School and other modern agencies of religious education. Offered on demand.

Rn206. Methods of Religious Education. This course attempts to apply the principles of educational psychology in the development of a successful methodology in teaching religion. Offered on demand.

Rn210. Old Testament Prophets and Prophecy. A study of the prophets and their messages. This is not so much an intensive study of prophecy, as it is an effort to understand its place and significance in Jewish national life and history and its relation to Christianity. Fall.

Rn217. The Gospels. An intensive study of the gospel records of the life and teachings of Jesus. Winter.

Rn218. Life and Letters of Paul. A study of the career of the Apostle Paul and the letters he wrote to churches which he founded in Asia and Europe. A general understanding of the character and progress of Christianity in the first century is sought as a basis for the continuation of the study of the history of Christianity in other courses. Spring.

Rn303. History of Christianity. A survey of the history of Christianity from the first century to the beginning of the modern era. Offered on demand.

Rn304. History of American Christianity. A study of the beginnings and development of Christianity on the North American continent, particularly in the United States. Attention is given to the origin and growth of all the American churches and their influence on the life and history of the people of the United States. Offered on demand.

Rn307. Comparative Religion. The purpose of this course is to discover the essential character of religion and its meaning and significance in human experience. The other living faiths of the world are studied and compared with Christianity. Fall.

Rn308. History of Christian Missions. This course begins with a rapid survey of Christian missions to the time of William Carey and devotes the remainder of the time to a more careful study of modern missions. Special attention is given to outstanding figures in the history of missions. Winter.

Rn315. Doctrines of the Bible. A study of the teachings of the Bible about God, sin, salvation and other vital matters. Spring.

Rn407. Psychology of Christian Personality. A study of the psychological principles involved in the teachings of Jesus relating to the building of Christian personality and character. Spring.

Rn408. Christian Ethics. A study of the teachings of the Bible and, particularly, the teachings of Jesus on moral problems and the application of these teachings to modern moral problems. Winter.

PRE-SEMINARY COURSE

The primary purpose in setting forth special requirements for ministerial students is to meet their needs more adequately by concentrating their work in those fields of study which will best prepare them for their calling. The requirements set forth below do not change any of the present requirements of the University for graduation and are planned so that, with the large number of electives allowed, the student may specialize in one or more fields of study.

English: six majors. English 101, 102 and English 201, 202 are required. The other two majors are to be selected in conference with the adviser. 413

History: four majors. The four majors should be distributed in the fields of Ancient, European, and American history.

Social Science: two majors.

Greek or Modern Foreign Language: three majors.

Laboratory Science: three majors.

Psychology: two majors. General Psychology (Psy203) required. For the other major Mental Hygiene (Psy404) is strongly recommended.

Religion: four majors. Courses in the Bible are recommended.

Speech: two majors. Speech 201 and Speech 202 are required.

Health and Physical Education: (Hpe103) one major.

Physical Education: required of every student.

It is strongly recommended that the student take Principles of Correct Thinking (Py204) and Principles of Right Conduct (Py201).

DEPARTMENT OF SPEECH

The purpose of the Department of Speech is to give training in practical public speaking that will best prepare the student for public or semi-public presentation of his own ideas. The average person has need occasionally to stand before others and express himself clearly and convincingly with confidence and self-control. For students who plan to major in speech, the following courses are required:

General Requirements	Majors	Speech Requirements	Majors
Foreign Language	2	Fundamentals	2
History	2	Diction	1
Advanced Literature	3	Play Production	2
English	2	Radio	1
Religion	1	Extemporaneous Speech, Public Address, or Parliamentary Practice	1
		Interpretation or Recital Programs	1
		Elective in Speech	1

In addition, the student is strongly urged to elect courses in science, history, art, and philosophy. The purpose of the Department is two-fold: a. To prepare and equip students for the field of teaching; b. To prepare for artistic work in the pulpit, on the platform, or on the stage those who are sufficiently gifted. A wide range of speech activities in debating, the speakers' bureau, radio, and the Little Theatre is afforded students interested in gaining practice in addition to that offered in the class rooms.

Each course number carries a credit of one major.

Sp201, 202. Fundamentals of Speech. Expressive movement: significance of posture and gesture; development of complex situations; significance of poise, attitude, and movement; pantomime; developing the sense of rhythm; imagination. Vocal expression: voice placing, breath control; drilling in developing vocal range, and philosophy of vocal expression. Fall and Winter.

Sp203. Diction. A study of the sounds of speech on phonetic principles; ear training; analysis and classification of speech sounds; diagnosis of faults of voice production and of organic and functional speech defects. Prerequisites: Sp201, 202. Spring.

Sp301. Story Telling. A course covering the history of story telling and material in poetry and prose. The adaptation of stories for various audiences, classification of tales, and the story as an educational factor are considered. The chief aim of the course is the development of individuals as story tellers. The course is especially beneficial to teachers and workers in camp, club, and religious activities. Fall.

Sp302. Literary Interpretation. The poetry and prose of classical and modern writers are studied with emphasis upon the significance of the text and its oral interpretation. The principles, methods, and materials of the art of choral reading are discussed. Winter.

Sp303. Recital Programs. Plays are studied in their two-fold relation as dramatic art and as literature; platform recitations are presented for criticism; writing of introductions. One complete lecture-recital prepared for public rendition. Spring.

Sp305. Drama: Theory and Technique. Interpretation of the drama from the acting viewpoint. A course in play acting, make-up, and costuming. Fall.

Sp306. Play Production. A study of dramatic production from the standpoint of the student preparing to teach dramatics. The choice of a play; building up equipment; organization; conduct of rehearsals. Students are required to analyze and direct a one-act play. Winter.

Sp307. Radio Speaking. A basic course in radio speech; use of the radio including public address and recording equipment; radio appearance; background of information about radio and its place in society; development of standards and a sense of discrimination to guide the radio listener. Spring.

Sp311. Play Writing. This course includes an analysis of plays to determine the principles underlying their construction and to cultivate in the student a critical ability. Constant practice in creative writing, including plot construction and dramatization of stories and situations of local color, will also be given. The plays of greatest distinction produced in the course will be presented by the Stetson Players. Spring.

Sp315. Extemporaneous Speaking. Drill in the fundamentals of public speaking with emphasis on the organization and delivery of speeches and oral discussion without the use of manuscript. Arrangement and analysis of topics from current events, history, and literature. Fall.

Sp316. Argumentation and Debate. A fundamental study of the basic principles of logic, organization, persuasion, and delivery. This course presents the theory and practice of speaking to convince, serves as an introduction to intercollegiate debating, and is a methods course for students preparing to direct school debate teams. Winter.

Sp317. Parliamentary Practice. Based on the study of Robert's Rules of Order. Practical drill in presiding over or participating in public meetings. Spring.

Sp401. Early Twentieth Century Drama. A course constructed to cover the plays written at the beginning of the modern period, to illustrate technique, subject matter, and treatment. A history of the drama from its inception in Greek times up to its expression in the early twentieth century will also be considered. The purpose of the course is to help the student develop a deeper appreciation, both intellectual and emotional, of contemporary drama. Fall.

Sp402. Later Twentieth Century Drama. A general basic course in the field of modern drama, with special consideration of the Pulitzer Prize plays and the Broadway successes. Special attention will be given to group discussion of these dramas, and approach will be made to the principles of dramatic criticism. Winter.

Sp403. Religious Drama. A survey of the material in the field of religious drama and an analysis of the problems in church drama. Spring.

Sp405. Public Address. A practice course in achieving the general aims of public speaking under both formal and informal conditions; including speaking to instruct, to convince, to impress, after-dinner, sermons, the presenting of papers, and the making of social speeches. Fall.

Sp406. Advanced Argumentation and Debate. Advanced principles of speaking to convince for those who expect to teach, or enter the fields of law, ministry, or government. The adjustment of the individual speaker to group, panel, and open forum speaking is emphasized. Winter.

Sp407. Speech Correction. The nature of speech defects; training in the diagnosis of individual cases; clinical practice of dealing with various kinds of defects. Intended primarily for those who expect to teach. Spring.

Sp412. Laboratory Theater. Special research work in the theater and drama for advanced students in the department. Practice in creating and designing with the longer plays. Offered on demand.

DIVISION OF THE NATURAL SCIENCES

The subjects included in this group are Biology, Chemistry, Engineering, Mathematics, and Physics.

For a Bachelor of Science degree in any department in this division, a student must satisfy the following divisional requirements, in addition to the general University requirements.

Major subject	9 majors ¹
Mathematics	3 majors
Laboratory Science (other than the major) ..	3 majors
Electives from the other two divisions	4 majors

In addition to the above, four majors of German or French is strongly advised.

Each department may impose certain additional requirements, but for the most part each student's course will be planned to suit his individual needs and aptitudes.

Sample outlines for the Pre-Medical, Pre-Laboratory-Technology, Pre-Dental, and the Combination Nursing courses follow. Students taking these courses will be advised by the teachers in this division.

PRE-MEDICAL COURSE

During the past few years there has been an increasing tendency on the part of the medical colleges to raise their entrance requirements. Many of them now require the Bachelor's degree as a prerequisite.² It is therefore strongly advised that whenever possible students take a four-year course leading to a degree and elect those subjects recommended by the medical school selected. A few first grade medical colleges will admit an exceptional student who has completed only a two-year pre-medical course, such as that outlined below. However, since only a very small per cent of those students admitted to the medical colleges are admitted on these minimum requirements, it is strongly recommended that at least the three-year course outlined below be taken. A student who plans to take only the two-year course should communicate with the medical college which he plans to attend and should have a copy of the catalogue of that school available when registering, in order that the necessary changes in the two-year pre-medical course outlined below may be made, if it does not conform with the requirements prescribed by the medical college which the student plans to attend.

¹ Eight majors are required for a Major in Mathematics.

² Attention is called to the fact that a Bachelor's degree is a prerequisite to membership in the American College of Surgeons.

PRE-LABORATORY-TECHNOLOGY COURSE

The course of study outlined below has a two-fold purpose: 1. To provide a broad training in the sciences leading to the Bachelor of Science degree for those students who plan to take a graduate degree in medical technology. 2. To provide training in the basic sciences for those students who plan to enter one of the approved schools or hospitals for the training of medical technologists where only two years of college work are required for entrance. Highly trained and skilled technologists are in great demand in research laboratories and students planning to prepare for this work are strongly advised to take the four-year course outlined below followed by at least one year of graduate work.

COMBINATION COURSE FOR NURSES

Leading to the Degree of Bachelor of Science

The following curriculum has been designed to meet the needs of those who plan to enter the field of nursing and who wish to have in addition to the professional training the advantages of the cultural and scientific background afforded by university training. The course consists of those subjects which will give the future nurse the foundation she will need if she wishes to become a teacher or a supervisor in a school of nursing. It will require six² years to complete the course. The first two years must be spent at Stetson or at another accredited college or university. At the end of the second year the student enters an affiliated school of nursing. Upon her graduation from that school, after three years, she re-enters Stetson for her last year's work. Her program of studies for this last year's work will be chosen in accordance with her needs through consultation with her adviser when she registers at the beginning of her senior year. Upon the satisfactory completion of the course the degree of Bachelor of Science will be awarded.

² Six years' work can be completed in five calendar years by attending three summer sessions and two full academic years at Stetson, in addition to three other years in a school of nursing.

After the completion of the sophomore year the student enters an affiliated school of nursing. In order to be eligible for affiliation, the hospital in which the school of nursing is located must be approved by the American College of Surgeons and the American Red Cross, and must be registered by the American Medical Association. The School of Nursing must be recommended to the University by the State Training School Inspector. The following schools of nursing are at present affiliated with Stetson: School of Nursing, The Good Samaritan Hospital, West Palm Beach; School of Nursing, James M. Jackson Memorial Hospital, Miami; School of Nursing, Mound Park Hospital, St. Petersburg; School of Nursing, Riverside Hospital, Jacksonville; School of Nursing, Pensacola Hospital, Pensacola; School of Nursing, Tampa Municipal Hospital, Tampa; School of Nursing, St. Luke's Hospital, Jacksonville; School of Nursing, St. Vincent's Hospital, Jacksonville; Orange General Hospital, Orlando, Florida. It is hoped that other Schools of Nursing will meet the requirements for affiliation. Credits for training in nursing will be accepted only from accredited schools. Only one year of college credit (nine majors) will be allowed for such training.

DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGY

The courses in Biology are planned: 1. To introduce the liberal arts student who elects Biology for his science to the fundamental concepts of the plant and animal kingdoms. 2. To meet the needs of the pre-medical student. 3. To meet the requirements of the Health and Physical Education major. 4. To offer a range of courses sufficient for those who desire to major in Biology. In all courses in the department the scientific method is stressed; the aim is to teach clear thinking and logical reasoning. Students are encouraged to discover facts and solve problems for themselves. By101, By102, By103, By305, By306, By307 are recommended for the pre-medical student; By101, By102, By103, By306, By307, By308 are recommended for the Physical Education student. In addition to the regular laboratory fee a breakage deposit is required of each student. At the end of the quarter, after the amount necessary to cover any breakage has been deducted, the balance of the deposit is returned to the student. Each course number carries a credit of one major unless otherwise noted.

By101. General Biology. An introductory course in which the fundamental principles underlying all life phenomena are emphasized. A general survey of the animal and plant kingdoms is made. Three hours' lecture and four hours' laboratory per week. Fall.

By102. Zoology. A survey of the animal groups is made: frequent comparisons as to the similarities and differences the groups exhibit with respect to habitat, structure, function, and development are stressed. Three hours' lecture and four hours' laboratory per week. Winter.

By103. Botany. The fundamental facts and principles relating to the structure and activities of living organisms, with special attention to plants, are studied. A survey of the plant kingdom is made, frequent comparisons between structure, function, habitat, and development of the various groups being emphasized. Three hours' lecture and four hours' laboratory per week. Spring.

By304. Genetics. This course deals with the laws of heredity as shown by both the experimental and statistical methods. The factors operative in living organisms, the way in which these factors interact, and the mechanism of perpetuation and modification through successive generations are considered. Offered on demand. Prerequisites: By101, By102.

By305. Vertebrate Embryology. A study of the development of a vertebrate form. Reproductive cells, maturation, fertilization, cleavage, and the development of the principal organs. The laboratory work will consist of a study of the early stages in the development of the frog, the chick, and the rabbit, followed by a study of the later embryonic stages of the pig. Prerequisites: By101, By102, By103, or their equivalent. Two hours' lecture and six hours' laboratory per week. Fall, 1947-1948 and in alternate years.

By306-307. Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy. A course designed to give a general view of each of the five classes of vertebrates—fishes, amphibians, reptiles, birds, and mammals. A comparative analysis of the systems and specialized structures is made. Prerequisites: By101, By102, By103, or their equivalent. Two hours' lecture and six hours' laboratory per week. Winter and Spring, 1947-1948 and in alternate years.

By308. Human Physiology. A study of the structure and functions of the human body. Prerequisites: By101, By102, By103, or their equivalent. Two hours' lecture and six hours' laboratory per week. Fall, 1946-1947 and in alternate years.

By309-310. Bacteriology. A course introducing the student to the activities of bacteria, and to the technique of bacteriological study. Prerequisites: By101, By102, By103, or their equivalent. Two hours' lecture and six hours' laboratory per week. Winter and Spring, 1946-1947 and in alternate years.

By385, 386, 387. Independent Study. A course providing for independent study under the guidance of a professor and open only to qualified students. Fall, Winter, and Spring.

By401. Entomology. A study of the structure, habitat, classification, pathogenic relationship, and economic importance of insects. A collection of insects is made. Open to all students of junior rank who have had By101, By102, or their equivalent. Fall.

By402. Histological Technique. A course designed to acquaint the student with methods of making slides by which the various tissues may be studied microscopically. Prerequisites: By101, By102, By103, or their equivalent. Winter.

By403. Systematic Botany. A field course emphasizing the identification and distribution of plants with particular attention to the flowering plants. The major natural plant areas in Florida are studied with reference to their ecological conditions. Open to all students of junior rank who have had By101, By103, or their equivalent. Spring.

By411, 412, 413. Advanced Biology. Special research topics in Biology. This course may be taken only by competent students, and with the consent of the head of the department. Offered on demand.

By485, 486, 487. Independent Study. A continuation of By385, 386, 387. Fall, Winter, and Spring.

DEPARTMENT OF CHEMISTRY

The objectives of the Chemistry Department are: 1. To provide a rigorous training in Chemistry and the scientific method for all students who elect Chemistry as their science; to use the laws and theories of Chemistry to teach the student to think clearly and accurately and to reason logically. 2. To provide the required pre-medical and pre-dental training for those students who plan to enter those professions. 3. To offer a suitable range of courses for those who desire to major in Chemistry. The laboratories are well equipped and all work in the elementary course is done under very careful supervision. In the more advanced courses the students are placed more on their own responsibility. Besides the regular laboratory fee, a breakage deposit is required of each student. At the end of the course, after deducting the amount necessary to cover breakage, the balance of the deposit will be returned to the student.

Each course number carries a credit of one major unless otherwise noted.

Cy101-102-103. General Chemistry. A study of some of the more fundamental laws and theories of chemistry, and the preparation and properties of a number of the common elements and their compounds. Three hours' lectures and recitations and four hours' laboratory per week. Fall, Winter, and Spring.

Cy201. Qualitative Analysis. An introduction to the theories and procedures of qualitative analysis; the separation and identification of both acid and metallic radicals are included. Prerequisite: Cy101-102-103. Two hours' lecture and six hours' laboratory per week. On demand.

Cy202. Quantitative Analysis. Elementary quantitative analysis involving volumetric methods in acidimetry, alkalimetry, oxidation and reduction, iodimetry, and precipitation. Prerequisites: Cy101-102-103 and Cy201. One hour's lecture and eight hours' laboratory per week. On demand.

Cy301. Quantitative Analysis. Gravimetric methods of analysis of simple compounds and some of the more complex substances such as ores and cement. Prerequisites: Cy101-102-103 and Cy201. One hour's lecture and eight hours' laboratory per week. On demand.

Cy303. Organic Chemistry. An introduction to the study of carbon compounds, their properties and methods of preparation. Type reactions are stressed throughout the course. Prerequisite: Cy101-102-103. Two hours' lecture and four hours' laboratory. Credit, four-fifths major. Fall.

Cy304. Organic Chemistry. A continuation of Chemistry 303. Prerequisites: Cy101-102-103 and Cy303. Two hours' lecture and four hours' laboratory per week. Credit, four-fifths major. Winter.

Cy305. Organic Chemistry. A continuation of Cy304. Prerequisites: Cy101-102-103 and Cy303, 304. Two hours' lecture and four hours' laboratory per week. Credit, four-fifths major. Spring.

Cy385, 386, 387. Independent Study. A course providing for independent study under the guidance of a professor and open only to qualified students. Fall, Winter, and Spring.

Cy401, 402, 403. Physical Chemistry. This course deals with the various theories of modern physical chemistry. Special attention is given to chemical kinetics, colloidal phenomena, the ionic theory, electro chemistry, and the phase rule. Prerequisites: Cy101-102-103 and Cy201. Two hours' lecture and four hours' laboratory per week. Credit, four-fifths major each quarter. Not offered 1946-1947.

Cy405. Organic Preparations. The preparation of many organic compounds not prepared in Chemistry 303, 304, and 305. Special attention is given to percentage yields and purity of compounds prepared. Prerequisites: Cy101-102-103, Cy303, 304, and 305. Ten hours' laboratory per week. Offered on demand.

Cy406. Special Methods of Quantitative Analysis. Laboratory courses to suit the needs of the individual student. As these courses consist entirely of laboratory and conference they may be elected at any time. Prerequisites: Cy101-102-103, Cy201, and Cy202. Ten hours' laboratory per week.

- A. Food Analysis.
- B. Water and Milk Analysis.
- C. Oil and Fuel Analysis.
- D. Fertilizer Analysis.
- E. Soil Analysis.
- F. Organic Ultimate Analysis.

Cy485, 486, 487. Independent Study. A continuation of Cy385, 386, 387. Fall, Winter, and Spring.

DEPARTMENT OF ENGINEERING

The Department of Engineering is equipped with a machine shop containing a good assortment of electrically-driven engine lathes, hack saws, speed lathes, drill presses, a shaper, electrically-operated hack saw, milling machine, wet tool grinder, and hand working tools. The Mechanical Drawing Room has a fine skylight. There are sixteen high, adjustable drawing stands, a filing cabinet for drawings, racks for drawing boards, and all the necessary apparatus for blueprinting.

The engineering course consists of the first two years of engineering with a total of twenty-two majors of work. All engineering students take the same freshman course as outlined below. In the sophomore year a choice of courses may be made.

Eg101, 102, 103. Mechanical Drawing. Practice in the use of drawing instruments, in lettering, and in preparing working drawings. Sketches and detail and assembly drawings are developed, and tracings are prepared from these and blue prints made. The class meets two, two hour periods per week. Credit two-fifths major per quarter. Fall, Winter, and Spring. Offered on demand.

Eg105, 106, 107. Machine Shop. The object of this course is to familiarize the student with the mathematical principles and operation of the lathe, shaper, milling machine, grinding machines, and drill press. Work consists of plain cylindrical work, tapers, thread cutting, gear making, and precision grinding. Shop practice is supplemented with lectures and problems. The class meets two, two hour periods per week. Credit, two-fifths major per quarter. Fall, Winter, and Spring. Offered on demand.

Eg109, 110, 111. Descriptive Geometry. Fundamental principles of the projection, intersection, and development of lines, planes, and solids. The class meets one hour per week. Credit, one-fifth major per quarter. Fall, Winter, and Spring. Offered on demand.

Eg201, 202, 203. Land Surveying. Care and use of instruments, land surveying, line running, and computation of area, levels, and profiles.

The course takes up the establishment of meridians, city surveying, simple curves, railroad layout, stadia, and plane table, plotting and map making, contours and earthwork, adjustment of instruments. The class meets six hours per week. Credit, three-fifths major per quarter. Fall, Winter, and Spring. Offered on demand.

Eg205, 206, 207. Mechanical Drawing. A continuation of Eg101, 102, 103. The class meets four hours per week. Credit, two-fifths major per quarter. Fall, Winter, and Spring. Offered on demand.

Eg209, 210, 211. Elements of Mechanism. The solution of problems in levers, linkages, wheels, cams, pulleys, gears and screws, and the design of gears and cams. The class meets three hours per week. Credit, three-fifths major per quarter. Fall, Winter, and Spring. Offered on demand.

Eg213. Strength of Materials. The work of this course includes a study of simple and combined stresses and deformations, the solutions of numerous problems concerning design and investigation of beams, columns, shafts, pipes, and footings. The class meets three hours per week. Credit, three-fifths major. Fall. Offered on demand.

Eg214. Graphic Statics. General principles and application to roof and bridge trusses, co-ordinated with corresponding work on strength of materials. The class meets three hours per week. Credit, three-fifths major. Winter. Offered on demand.

Eg215. Constructive Design. The work of this course includes a study of the determination of simple and combined stresses and solution of problems concerning design of dams, piers, culverts, trestles, foundations and arch construction. One complete design of a simple structure will be required. Three hours per week. Credit, three-fifths major. Spring. Offered on demand.

Eg217, 218, 219. Steam Power Plants. A study of condensers, power plant auxiliaries, piping, and general arrangement of the power plant as a whole. The class meets three hours per week. Credit, three-fifths major per quarter. Fall, Winter, and Spring. Offered on demand.

Eg301, 302. Electricity and Magnetism. Fundamental laws of electrical and magnetic circuits, with emphasis upon alternating current theory and apparatus. The class meets five hours per week. Credit, one major each quarter. Fall and Winter. Offered on demand.

DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS

This department offers opportunities for the study of mathematics, either in its theoretical aspects or as applied to scientific and engineering work.

The courses offered permit the student to meet the requirement of eight majors for a subject major in mathematics, and are adapted to serve as a preparation for specialization in pure mathematics, in mathematical physics, or along lines of engineering requiring proficiency in mathematics.

Considerable latitude in the choice of subjects is provided for in the junior and senior years in order that the student may be able to take a considerable amount of work in general studies, or in science and engineering where mathematics plays an important part. The department recommends a consistent choice of electives in allied fields. The course leads to the degree of Bachelor of Science.

Ms101, 102, 103. General Mathematics. First year high school algebra is reviewed. Second year high school algebra is developed upon this foundation. The usual topics of college algebra are discussed. Fundamental trigonometry and analytic geometry as needed in science, business, and education are developed. Fall, Winter, and Spring.

Ms301, 302, 303. The Calculus. The general principles of differentiation and integration are developed and applied to geometrical and physical concepts. Prerequisites: Ms101, 102, 103. Fall, Winter, and Spring.

Ms403, 404, 405. Introduction to Higher Algebra. Fundamentals of polynomials, determinants, linear dependence, transformations, invariants and the modern theory of algebraic equations. Bocher and Cajori texts are used. Two hours per week. Fall, Winter, and Spring. Offered on demand.

Ms407, 408, 409. Differential Equations. Solutions and their characteristics of ordinary and the more elementary partial differential equations, together with the applications in science, the study of existence theorems, and numerical approximations. Two hours per week. Fall, Winter, and Spring. Offered on demand.

Ms411, 412, 413. Advanced Mathematics. Selected topics in mathematics. Open only to advanced mathematics students. Hours and credits to be arranged. Offered on demand.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS

Physics deals with the fundamental facts and theories which govern the physical world in which we live. It is often referred to as the science of matter and energy. It includes several classical divisions: Mechanics, Heat, Sound, Magnetism, Electricity, and Light; also many specialized fields: Radio, Television, X-Rays, Radio-activity, Spectroscopy, Atomic Structures, Thermionics, Thermo-dynamics, Kinematics, Hydraulics, Acoustics, Properties of Materials, Meteorology, Astrophysics, Biophysics, Photoelectronics, etc.

The courses offered provide for the needs of two groups of students:

(1) The non-technical student who desires a knowledge of the scientific method and of the contributions of great scientists who have so revolutionized the physical environment of the race during recent years.

(2) The technical student who desires a mastery of the laws of Physics as a preparation for teaching, research, engineering, medicine, or other sciences which require physical measuring and testing apparatus and technique.

Individual laboratory work is required to provide first-hand evidence of experimental facts discussed in the classroom.

Students majoring in Physics are advised to include the following courses in their program: Physics (nine majors), Mathematics (five majors or more), Chemistry (five majors) or an equivalent credit from the Natural Science Group, English (two majors), Religion (one major). Other courses especially recommended are: Foreign Language, Speech, Mechanical Drawing, History, Economics, Sociology, and English.

Not all of the courses listed below will be given during a single year, but a sufficient variety will be offered in rotation to provide for the needs of students desiring to major in Physics.

Each course number carries a credit of one major unless otherwise noted.

Ps101, 102, 103. General Physics. A course which traces historically and experimentally the development of great principles of elementary physics. The fields of Mechanics and Heat are usually covered during the Fall term; Magnetism and Electricity during the Winter term; and Sound, Light, and Modern Physics during the Spring term. Three class hours and four laboratory hours per week. Fall, Winter, and Spring.

Ps105, 106, 107. Physics for Music Students. Selected topics from the fields of Mechanics, Heat, Sound, and Electricity. Emphasis upon the physical basis of musical sound. Three class hours and four laboratory hours per week. Fall, Winter, and Spring. Offered 1947-1948.

Ps209, 210, 211. Aviation. A ground school course designed to acquaint the student with the fundamentals of air navigation, meteorology, aerodynamics, airplanes, power plants, and Civil Air Regulations. One minor each term. Fall, Winter, and Spring.

Ps301, 302. Advanced Electricity and Magnetism. Fundamental laws of electrical and magnetic circuits, with emphasis upon alternating current theory and apparatus. Fall and Winter. Offered 1947-1948.

Ps306. Applied Mechanics. A study of the effects of forces upon the motion or condition of rigid bodies as applied to problems in engineering. Spring. Offered on demand.

Ps327, 328. Radionics. Fundamental principles of electronics as applied to radio transmission and reception, including modern methods of design, construction, and operation. Fall and Winter.

Ps337, 338, 339. Advanced Laboratory. A course offering a wide selection of laboratory projects, emphasizing precision methods and adapted to the special interests of the student. Open to a limited number of qualified students. Hours and credits to be arranged. Fall, Winter and Spring.

Ps341, 342, 343. Modern Physics. An introduction to the recently developed fields of: Electronics, Thermionics, Photo- and Piezo-electricity, X-Rays, Quanta, Atomic Structures, Spectroscopy, Radio, Television, Radioactivity, Relativity, Supersonics, etc., prefaced by a brief historical survey of Classical Physics. Offered on demand.

Ps351, 352, 353. Electrical Engineering. Fundamental principles underlying electrical engineering practice, with special emphasis upon A. C. equipment. Fall, Winter, and Spring. Offered 1947-1948.

Ps385, 386, 387. Independent Study. A course providing for independent study under the guidance of a professor and open only to qualified students. Fall, Winter, and Spring.

Ps403, 404, 405. Research and Thesis. Offered only on demand to approved advanced students. Hours and credits to be arranged.

DIVISION OF THE SOCIAL SCIENCES

The Division of Social Sciences includes the five Social Sciences (Economics, Geography, History, Political Science, Sociology), the Department of Journalism, the Department of Teacher Education, and the Department of Health and Physical Education.

The purpose of the courses in the various Social Sciences (Economics, Geography, History, Political Science, Sociology) is to contribute to an understanding of modern society. While the individual subjects are concerned with particular aspects of human relations, they are closely associated, employ similar methods of study, and have the same general objectives. Students planning to concentrate their studies in this field may choose to major in one subject or in a group of subjects leading to the A.B. degree. The requirements of the subject major are a minimum program of eight majors in the subject of specialization and two majors in each of two other Social Sciences. The requirements of the group include six majors in one subject, four in a second, and three selected from the remaining Social Sciences. Of this total of thirteen majors, at least four must be taken in courses of junior-senior rank.

Teacher training is under the general supervision of the Department of Teacher Education. Students who plan to teach or to major in some field of Education should consult the recommendations and courses of study of this department.

Students who wish to major in Health and Physical Education, or to teach that subject, should be guided by the course of study and recommendations of the Department of Health and Physical Education.

It is suggested that, in addition to meeting the general requirements for the degree, all students should choose some courses outside the Division of Social Sciences. A satisfactory command of English is essential. In all cases a proper selection of courses to meet individual needs and to insure a well-balanced program of study is the goal to be attained.

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS

The courses offered in Economics aim to develop in the student an awareness of the economic aspects of life. Through the study of Economics the student may become better able to improve his material well-being and promote more effectively the material welfare of the community and the nation. The courses should be helpful to students planning careers in finance, law, education, religion, government, or social service. Students who plan to major in Economics are required to take Es201, 202 in their sophomore year. In addition they should take six majors in Economics in courses that make a unified program of study. The courses taken of junior-senior rank should include Es303, Es405, Es412, and either Es408 or Es415. In addition to meeting major requirements students are required to take two majors in each of two other Social Science subjects. Before selecting courses other than those designated, a student should consult his faculty adviser.

The courses in Economics will be offered in the School of Business. Each course number carries a credit of one major.

Es106. Economic Geography. A consideration of the principal articles of commerce and their regional aspect from the standpoint of their contribution to and influence upon economic life. Fall.

Es113. Economic History of the United States. A thorough course in the economic history and development of our country. Spring.

Es201, 202. Principles of Economics. A study of the economic organization of modern society and of the principles governing the production, exchange, distribution, and consumption of wealth. The problems of labor, money and banking, business cycles, public finance, monopolies, and international trade will be considered together with proposals for the reform of the economic organization. Prerequisite: sophomore standing. Winter and Spring.

Es303. Money and Banking. A study of money, credit, banking, and the mechanism of exchange, with emphasis upon the federal reserve system and current developments in the theory and practice of money and credit control. Monetary, credit, and banking practices of England, France, and Germany are briefly surveyed. Prerequisites: Es201, 202, and junior standing. Winter.

Es309. Transportation. A study of railway, water, highway and air transportation, the structure and function of the transportation system, the determination of rates, the problem of valuation, and the development of regulatory policy. Offered 1946-1947.

Es312. Public Utilities. A study of public utility economics, especially in the electrical utility field. Stress is placed upon such vital problems of public regulation as the fixing of rate schedules. Offered on demand.

Es316. Marketing. (For full description of course see Bn316.)

Es320. Labor Problems. (For full description of course see Bn320.)

Es405. Economic Statistics. A study of the methods of collecting and tabulating statistical data, graphic presentation, measures of central tendency, measures of dispersion, analysis of time series, index numbers, correlation, business forecasting. The application of statistics to economic, social, and business problems is indicated. Prerequisite: junior standing. 1946-1947 and in alternate years.

Es408. Development of Economic Thought. A study of the development of economics as a social science. Emphasis is given to English classical economics and the leading recent schools of economic thought. Consideration of representative economic literature and critical analysis of economic theories. Winter. Offered on demand.

Es412. Public Finance. A study of expenditures, indebtedness, revenues, and financial administration in American federal, state, and local government. Emphasis is given to the history and development of various kinds of taxes, tax shifting, expenditure control, and the elements of financial administration including budgeting. Prerequisites: Es201, 202. Offered on demand.

Es415. Advanced Economics. This course will be an advanced treatment of economic theory and principles, stressing the works of such modern writers as Keynes, Chamberlain, Robinson, or Burns. Prerequisites: Es201, 202. Offered on demand.

Es418. Government and Business. (For full description of course see Bn418.)

Es485, 486, 487. Independent Study. A continuation of Es385, 386, 387. Fall, Winter, and Spring.

DEPARTMENT OF GEOGRAPHY

To meet the requirements of certification for teaching geography the following courses are suggested: Gy101, Gy102, Gy103, Gy301, Gy302, Gy303, and electives from other advanced courses to make the required number of hours.

Each course number carries a credit of one major.

Gy101. College Geography. A consideration of the natural environment, such as climate, soils, land forms, natural vegetation, and resources, in relation to human activities. Fall.

Gy102. College Geography. Regional geography. A consideration of the natural divisions of the world and their utilization under different cultural systems. Winter.

Gy103. Geography of Latin America. A geographical analysis of Latin America. The regional contrasts, problems, and possibilities of future development are considered. Spring.

Gy106. Economic Geography. A consideration of the principal articles of commerce and their regional aspect from the standpoint of their contribution to and influence upon economic life. Fall.

Gy301. Geography of North America. A geographic analysis of the United States, Alaska, and Canada. A correlation of the natural resources and other environmental factors with the economic and social structure and development. Offered on demand.

Gy302. Geography of Europe. The geographic aspects of the physical, economic, and social factors are considered. Offered on demand.

Gy303. Geography of Asia. A study of the major geographic regions of the continent and its insular fringes with emphasis upon the regions of densest population. Spring.

Gy310. Global Geography. Global Geography is a four-fold study which acquaints man with the problems which grow out of geographical backgrounds—his resource patterns and their relationship to world affairs; his geonomic, geo-cultural and geopolitical problems. Winter.

Gy311. Conservation of Natural Resources. The importance of our natural resources considered from the standpoint of their nature, origin, distribution, utilization, and need for their conservation. Two lectures per week. Prerequisite: junior standing. Spring.

Gy385, 386, 387. Independent Study. A course providing for independent study under the guidance of a professor and open only to qualified students. Fall, Winter, and Spring.

Gy401, 402, 403. Advanced Geography. Open only to adequately prepared students, and with the consent of the head of the department. Hours and credits to be arranged. Offered on demand.

Gy485, 486, 487. Independent Study. A continuation of Gy385, 386, 387.

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

History is a cultural subject closely associated with the Humanities and a foundation study among the Social Sciences. Students majoring in History should choose their associated and other elective courses in accordance with their particular objectives. It is strongly recommended that some work be taken in a foreign language, a laboratory science or mathematics, and philosophy or psychology. A major includes eight majors in History and two majors in each of two other Social Sciences. Hy105, 106 is designed as the basic course. Students who plan to teach History or to make it their major subject should take both Hy105, 106 and Hy203, 204.

Unless otherwise indicated, each numbered course is one major.

Hy105. Medieval and Early Modern Europe. An introductory course in European history from the period of the Roman empire to the early seventeenth century. Political, economic, and cultural developments will be stressed. Fall.

Hy106. Modern Europe. An introductory course in European history from the seventeenth century to the present. Political, economic, and cultural factors will be stressed. Winter.

Hy107. Colonial Latin America. The geographic setting and its influence; the aboriginal Americans; the Spanish background; discovery and exploration; settlement and administration; the struggle for independence. Winter.

Hy203. The United States to 1865. A survey of European backgrounds, early inhabitants, and the Colonial Period; the American Revolution; the Critical Period; the new government under Federalist guidance; Jeffersonian and Jacksonian Democracy; Westward Expansion; the growth of Sectionalism; the Civil War. Fall, repeated in the Spring.

Hy204. The United States since 1865. Reconstruction; readjustments of government and agriculture to the new industrialization; significance of the Grant and Cleveland administrations; importance of "the West"; War with Spain; the reforms of Roosevelt and Wilson; the World War; "Prosperity"; the "New Deal." Winter.

Hy221. Current World History. A study of current events in newspapers, magazines, and books intended to interpret unfolding history—military, political, social, and economic. Fall, Winter, and Spring.

Hy230. Russian History. From the beginning to the present time. Emphasis is placed upon Russia's cultural development. Differences of land and population; religious, political, and economic inheritance are stressed in an effort to understand the life of a people who now play a large part in the world today. Spring.

Hy303. The Old South and Reconstruction. A reading course. Topics: the land of Dixie; staple crops; slavery; plantation life; overseers; the aristocracy; the plain people; secession; reconstruction; election of Hayes and end of the reconstruction period. Spring. Not offered 1945-46.

Hy304. History of Florida. The Spanish background; early discoverers and explorers; the French phase; the rule of the Spanish; the English period; the Seminoles; missions in Florida; events leading to the purchase of Florida; territorial history; later developments. On Demand.

Hy306. Independent Latin America. A survey of the history of the leading Latin American states since independence. Emphasis is placed on the relations between the Caribbean countries and the United States. On Demand.

Hy308. The Modern Far East. This course intends to give a background for an understanding of the new part the Far East plays in world affairs. Attention will be given to the opening of China and Japan and to the results of Western imperialism. The modernization of Japan; the contest for Korea; the European advance on China; the Chinese Revolution; the Washington Conference; the new programs in Japan, China, and Russia will command attention. Prerequisite: two majors of history or political science. On Demand.

Hy309. American Diplomacy. A study of American foreign policies and practices, including such topics as the negotiations for recognition of independence; the Monroe Doctrine; Mexican relations; peaceful settlement of disputes, especially with England; problems of trade and territorial expansion, neutrality, and international co-operation. Prerequisites: Hy203, 204. Fall.

Hy310. American Democracy. This course begins with a discussion of democracy in its historical origins; the rise of the State, forms of government, and the nature of Law. Great American democratic documents are studied as are the social and economic forces which gave rise to the American Revolution. Most of the course is devoted to an analysis of the American Bills of Rights and their application to current problems of government in this country. Winter.

Hy311. Europe, 1871-1914. This course surveys the background of the European scene in 1871 and treats more fully the national development of the European peoples, their economic, social, and cultural trends, imperialistic expansion, and international relations during the half-century preceding the War of 1914. Winter.

Hy312. Europe Since 1914. The heritage of war and revolution; the Peace Conference; problems of security, debts, reparations, and disarmaments; national reconstruction and problems growing out of the "depression"; the "dictators"; the War of 1939. Spring.

Hy319. Ancient History. The period covering the time of the Egyptian, Babylonian, and Assyrian civilizations; the development of Greek civilization from prehistoric times to the conquest of Asia by Alexander the Great; the study of Roman history to 476 A. D. On Demand.

Hy331, 332, 333. History of England. Saxon England; the Norman Conquest; the Great Charter; Germanic ideas; the beginning of Parliament; the revival of learning and the Reformation; the Tudor despotism; the age of Elizabeth; Puritan England; the Stuart period; Cromwell and the Civil War; the Restoration; the Revolution of 1688 and the Bill of Rights; the Age of Anne; the Georgian Period; the Victorian Era; the colonial expansion and naval supremacy of England. Two fifths major each quarter. Offered on demand.

Hy385, 386, 387. Independent Study. A course providing for independent study under the guidance of a professor and open only to qualified students.

Hy401, 402. World Civilization. This course is intended to give the student an intimate knowledge of the development of the civilization of mankind from the earliest times. The effort is made to turn away from the old tale of destruction, to survey the past constructively and to interest the student in past culture, as well as in purely political history. The course will seek to review and unify our impressions of the past ages and also to keep in touch with the present currents of thought and progress of knowledge. Offered on demand.

Hy403, 404. History of the United States. An advanced course in the history of the United States open to students who have had adequate preparation; designed especially for those who are majoring in history. Offered on demand.

Hy407. European Civilization. In this course the history of the development of modern European civilization will be carefully studied. The contribution of the Greek, the Roman, the Hebrew, and the Teuton to the civilization of today will be presented in some detail, and an effort will be made to show the student the close connection between the culture of the past and the present. Lecture course. Prerequisites: Hy105 and Hy106. Offered on demand.

Hy408. The Reformation. In this course an intensive study will be made of the religious experiences of Martin Luther and their relation to the Reformation Movement. The work of other great reformers, such as Erasmus, Calvin, Zwingli, and Cranmer, will be presented, and the comparative effects of the principles of liberty and authority, in the religious field upon the cultural life of the world, since the sixteenth century, will be carefully examined. Lecture course. Prerequisites: Hy105 and Hy106. Offered on demand.

Hy411. American Political Biography. (For full description see Pe411.)

Hy485, 486, 487. Independent Study. A continuation of Hy385, 386, 387.

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

The courses in Political Science are designed to contribute to a liberal education and to train for citizenship in a democracy. They also provide valuable training for careers in the public service, the legal and teaching professions, business, and journalism. It is strongly recommended that students majoring in Political Science take some work in a foreign language, a laboratory science or mathematics, and philosophy or psychology. A major includes eight majors in Political Science and two majors in each of two other Social Sciences. Hy203, 204; Es201, 202; and Es412 usually should prove helpful to students specializing in Political Science.

Pe103. American National Government. The Constitution of the United States; foundations of political power; national parties; the Executive organization and work of Congress; the Judiciary; discussion of problems. Fall.

Pe205, 206. European Government. A study of the structure and powers of the governments of the leading European nations, with attention to Japan and the United States for comparative purposes. Emphasis is placed upon principles of political science as illustrated by various phases of the governmental systems of England, France, Switzerland, Italy, Germany, and Russia. Special attention will be given to the differences between the parliamentary democracies and the dictatorships. On Demand.

Pe303. American State Government. State government and administration. The place of the states in the nation; state constitutions; the legislature; the governor; finance; reorganization of state government. On Demand.

Pe304. American City Government. City government and administration; history of American city government; city-state relations; various types of government; nominations and elections; problems of administration. On Demand.

Pe308. The Modern Far East. (For full description of course see Hy308.)

Pe309. American Diplomacy. (For full description of course see Hy309.)

Pe311. American Parties and Politics. A study of the modern political party as an agency of popular government and as a social institution. It covers such subjects as: the party's relationship to public office and public interest; historical evolution of American parties, recent campaigns, party organization, legal controls, party finances, election procedure, ballot forms, bossism, local politics in large cities, and current problems and issues. On Demand.

Pe341. Current Political Problems. This course is primarily concerned with the great social and economic problems which now confront the Nation. The discussions are from the viewpoint of the State and their solution so far as political power may affect them. Though related matters are considered, the chief subject for consideration is the national labor-industrial situation which calls for a detailed study of the National Labor Relations Act. Spring.

Pe353. International Law. (Offered in the College of Law.) Winter.

Pe402. International Relations. This course centers attention on problems growing out of nationalism and internationalism; imperialism; international organizations, such as the League of Nations and the Pan-American Union; and treaty making will be stressed. Prerequisites: two majors of history and one of political science. Fall.

Pe405, 406. Constitutional Law. (Offered in the College of Law.) Winter and Spring.

Pe411. American Political Biography. A reading course open to juniors, seniors, and graduate students majoring or minoring in history or political science. The purpose is to build up a background through the study of outstanding personalities who have shared in directing the American nation. On Demand.

Pe418. Government and Business. (For full description of course see Bn418.)

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY

Students majoring in Sociology should have a good foundation in History, Economics, Political Science, Psychology, and Geography. In addition to meeting requirements regarding the major subject, they are required to take a minimum of two majors in each of two other Social Science subjects. Sy101, 102, its equivalent, or similar work in cognate subjects is prerequisite to other courses in Sociology.

Each course carries a credit of one major.

Sy101, 102. Introduction to Sociology. This course aims to introduce the social sciences, to acquaint the student with the major problems which face society in its struggle for better social guidance, and to enable him to understand the organic relationship involved and to proceed in effective ways to take his part in further scientific study and in the work of social adjustment and direction. Sy101, Fall and Winter. Sy102, Winter and Spring.

Sy201. Principles of Sociology. The origin, development, structure, and functions of society and its institutions, with special emphasis on the family, industry and the industrial classes, labor regulations, and religion. This course takes up where Sociology 101 and 102 leave off, combining theory and practice in the statement and solution of certain of the chief problems of Sociology. Not offered 1946-1947.

Sy301. The Family. This course outlines the historical development and purpose of the family from ancient to modern times; seeks to discover and analyze the major problems of family life, and to comprehend the principles and means of strengthening this basic social institution. Prerequisite: Sy101, 102 or equivalent work in social science. Fall.

Sy302. Criminology. The nature and cause of crime; the development of modern methods of criminal procedure; classes of criminals; methods of prevention. Sociological aspects of criminal law and procedure. Constructive proposals and programs. Class discussions on special phases of criminology and penology. Prerequisite: Sy101, 102. Fall.

Sy303. Juvenile Delinquency. A study of hereditary and social determinants in juvenile delinquency. Extent, causative factors, and an analysis of case studies; probation and parole; prevention of delinquency; lectures and class reports. Prerequisite: Sy101, 102, or its equivalent. Not offered 1946-1947.

Sy304. Contemporary Sociology. A brief background of social theory, and a survey of the entire field of sociology from the standpoint of present-day thought. A study of the current sociological literature, including the more recent publications and the better articles in the leading sociological journals, kindred magazines and other publications. Prerequisite: Sy101, 102, or its equivalent. Offered on demand.

Sy305. Rural Sociology. A survey of the physical, economic, and social aspects of rural society; a study of its people, structure, institutions, processes, and relations to urban life. Prerequisite: Sy101, 102, or its equivalent. Not offered 1946-1947.

Sy306. Urban Sociology. An introductory study of urban society. The origin and growth of cities; the ecology of city life; social mobility and the relation of city and country; urban personalities and institutions; urbanization and social control; the difficulty of controlling urban life by rural traditions; city planning. Prerequisite: Sy101, 102, or its equivalent. Not offered 1946-1947.

Sy307. American Race Problems. A study of racial characteristics; race and culture contacts, and peoples in the United States; and of national policies dealing with the matter, including a special study of the Negro problem. Prerequisite: Sy101, 102 or equivalent in social science. Winter.

Sy310. Problems of Child Welfare. A survey of child welfare by a careful study of heredity and environment conditions which make or mar life. This course treats of the conservation of child life; the function of health and recreation; special problems of education for exceptional children; child labor and vocational guidance; juvenile delinquency; problems of dependency, neglect, and principles of child care. Prerequisite: Sy101, 102, or equivalent work in social science. Not offered 1946-1947.

Sy401. Social Psychology. A study of the social behavior and the social consciousness of the individual. The social factors in personality; motivation, social interaction, suggestion, social selection, decision, and control; culture, folkways, mores and institutions; social adjustments; social behavior in relation to society and social progress. Spring.

Sy402. Social Problems. Not offered 1946-1947.

Sy405. Anthropology. A general survey of the field of anthropology dealing with the origin of man, the differential and distribution of the races. The major portion of the course is devoted to cultural anthropology, stressing social origins and the varied aspects of culture in primitive and civilized society. It includes the study of social organization, economic life, language, family systems, religion, magic and mythology of primitive man. Spring.

Sy406. Social Pathology. A general survey dealing with the disorganization of the individual, the family, urban and rural communities, international relations, industry and labor, education, crime, and religion, together with a brief consideration of a program of reconstruction. Not offered 1946-1947.

Sy407. Social Institutions. A study of the major social institutions, namely, marriage, the family, the economic, educational, recreational, religious, scientific, governmental systems, and allied social forces. In each case the specific originating factors, the major conceptional or functional developments, the principal folkways and mores which apply to each, the associations, and the instruments involved will be appraised. Not offered 1946-1947.

Sy408. The Development of Social Theory. This course is designed as an introduction to the field of social thought for college students, irrespective of the fields in which their special interests lie. The roots of group thinking are traced to their beginnings in primitive society. The leaders who have shaped group thinking through the ages from Plato to Pareto are studied. Through an unbiased appraisal of twentieth century trends a foundation is laid for insight into the baffling problems of today. Not offered 1946-1947.

DEPARTMENT OF JOURNALISM

Modern newspapers and periodicals are so vitally important in American life that they merit serious study by every educated person. Specifically, the Journalism courses outlined below are designed to train students for constructive newspaper work. More comprehensively, their purpose is to promote on the part of all readers a more intelligent understanding of the nature and potentialities of the newspaper and periodical.

For the student desiring to major in journalism courses giving a broad cultural background, as well as professional courses in journalism, are important. The ability to use a typewriter is a requirement for anyone engaged in journalistic work.

A Program for a Major in Journalism

Journalism	8 majors
English	5 majors
Modern Foreign Language	5 majors
History	4 majors
Sociology	2 majors
Psychology	2 majors
Religion	1 major
Hygiene	1 major
<hr/>
Total	28 majors
Elective	8 majors
<hr/>

Total for Graduation 36 majors

Each course number carries a credit of one major, (a minimum of six students is required for each course).

Jm203. The American Press. A general survey of the entire field of American journalism including consideration of all departments of the newspaper, periodical literature, publicity and promotion, trade publications, radio scriptwriting and newscasting, and advertising. Fall.

Jm206. History of American Journalism. Origins of the newspaper in America, its growth into the modern industrial institution, and its role in the political, economic, and social history of the country. Lectures, discussions, outside readings. Offered on demand.

Jm207. Beginning News Reporting. Thorough groundwork in news-gathering and newswriting fundamentals. Students cover campus and city news sources. A survey of the leading American newspapers is correlated with the writing practice. Lectures and laboratory. Winter.

Jm302. World Affairs and the Press. A study of the press as a factor in current national and international issues. Effects of censorship and propaganda. Lectures, discussions, outside readings. Offered on demand.

Jm303. Writing of Features and Special Articles. Analysis of semi-news copy, writing stories for daily feature pages, Sunday magazine supplements, and special departments. Also preparation of scientific, historical, and informational articles for magazines of general circulation and syndicates. Offered on demand.

Jm306. The Writing of Advertisements. Consideration is given to the fundamental principles underlying the production of copy for all types of advertising media. Students are given an opportunity for actual practice in the preparation of layouts and writing copy. Reading assignments and class discussions will supplement the laboratory work. Offered on demand.

Jm311. Advanced Newspaper Reporting. An advanced reporting course planned to acquaint the student with the problems of publishing daily newspapers and to give experience in handling actual news problems. Prerequisite: Jm207. Spring.

Jm321, 322. News Editing. During the first quarter students are given intensive practice in copyreading and headline writing with special emphasis placed upon the development of clear, concise English, accuracy and speed in handling copy. The work of the second quarter stresses news editorial functions and special attention is given to headlines, news values, policy, libel, page layouts, and reader interest. Wire service copy is used during the second quarter. Prerequisite: Jm207. Offered on demand.

DEPARTMENT OF TEACHER EDUCATION

From its beginning Stetson University has emphasized the importance of professional training for teachers. This emphasis has been reinforced through the organization of Saturday classes, the enlargement of Summer Session work, and by the recent changes made in the curriculum to accommodate the internship program. The program of teacher education set forth here is designed to prepare teachers for both the elementary and secondary fields of education and will enable them (1) to meet the requirements of the Florida State Board of Education as to prescribed courses, and (2) to meet the requirements of Stetson University for graduation. There is provision also for elective work.

GENERAL POLICY

In preparing candidates for the teaching profession it is the policy of the University to cooperate fully with the State Department of Education. It is the common purpose of the University and the State Department of Education (see General Preparation note on the following page) to provide a broad cultural background in the liberal arts, sciences (including resources use education), and health as basic preparation for those preparing to teach. Therefore, all students should major and minor in related subject fields approved by the Dean. Furthermore, candidates who expect to teach in secondary schools of Florida must pursue the number of hours in each subject which they expect to teach as is specified by the State Department of Education for certification. Usually the requirements for major college credit and for certification are about equal. But this is not true in every case. Therefore, students are advised to check with the Dean of the University in advance as to these requirements. Students may obtain help from advisers in the Department of Education at any time.

THE PLACEMENT OF TEACHERS

The University, through its contacts with public school officials, has been able to serve them and the graduates of Stetson by recommending qualified and competent young men and women for employment. This service is rendered without cost to Stetson students. It is the policy of the University to try to place its graduates in positions for which they are properly trained and fitted by scholarship and personality. The very large percentage of Stetson teachers placed in Florida schools and elsewhere in the past, evidences a fine spirit of cooperation between the University and the public schools.

FLORIDA GRADUATE STATE CERTIFICATES

Graduates of John B. Stetson University and students who complete the two-year teacher-training course receive State Certificates when all the requirements of the State Department of Education are met. Prospective teachers are referred to the bulletins of the State Department of Education for full details in regard to the certification of teachers. Some of the main provisions of the State regulations are quoted here:

"Certificate Required by Law: In order to teach legally in the public schools of Florida one must hold a valid Florida certificate."

"Requirements Regarding the United States Constitution:

"In order to secure a Florida certificate the applicant must assert his allegiance to the Constitution of the United States and:

"1. Must have taken the examination on the Constitution of the United States held at each standard institution of higher learning within the State on the Saturday following the first Thursday in April, or at some place in the county seat designated by the county superintendent of one of the following counties: Alachua, Dade, Leon, and Polk, on the Saturday following the first Thursday in July, and must have made a grade of 85% or higher, or

"2. In lieu thereof, must have completed at least six semester hours of college work in American History and Government, including the Constitution of the United States, at some standard institution.

"Note: If, at any time, an applicant has passed the Constitution examination referred to in 1, he need not take it again."

"Recency of Credit: No one will be eligible for the graduate certificate unless he has completed at least nine semester hours, with at least three semester hours in each subject or field to be covered by the certificate, at a standard institution within the eight-year period immediately preceding the date on which the application is made complete."

"Quality of Credit: No one will be eligible for the graduate certificate unless he has a general average of not less than 'C' or the equivalent and no one will be eligible for certification in any special subject or field unless he has an average of not less than 'C' in that subject or field."

"General Preparation: A broad general background is considered essential in the preparation of teachers. At least six semester hours are required in each of the following fields: Science, Social Studies, and English. At least a one-semester course is required in Health Education or Hygiene, and at least a one-semester course is required in Physical Education. It is also considered highly desirable for the prospective teacher to have general courses in mathematics, fine arts, language arts, etc."

"Note: Courses of a general nature are preferable, but any courses which include the subject content of the fields indicated will be acceptable."

"Professional Preparation: The applicant must have had eighteen semester hours of education in addition to any courses he may have had in general psychology, and must have fulfilled one of the following plans for obtaining actual classroom experience:

"1. He must have served in an internship program approved by the department. (This is the preferred plan and indication that the applicant followed this plan will be made on the certificate. Six of the hours earned in the internship program may be counted as a part of the total eighteen hours of professional preparation required.)—or

"2. He must have at least six semester hours of observation and practice teaching. (Beginning with the Fall quarter, 1946, Stetson University will require those who elect observation and practice teaching to spend 200 hours in the classroom instead of a minimum of 90 clock hours as heretofore. This change in requirements for observation and practice teaching is made necessary by the Lewis Scholarship Law, the provisions of which make it possible for the directing teacher to receive from the State $75 as compensation for her service. In order to spend 200 hours in the classroom it will be necessary for those who elect this plan to spend two hours daily during the observation-practice instead of one hour as heretofore. Conference work at the college will be reduced to a minimum at beginning and at the close of the observation-practice period. For this work three majors credit will be granted, two of which may be counted toward education credit required for a Florida teacher's certificate.)—or

"3. He must have had at least sixteen months' actual teaching experience within the three-year period immediately preceding the completion of his application for a certificate. (This meets the experience requirement but may not be counted as a part of the eighteen hours of professional preparation.)"

"(Note: Twelve of the eighteen semester hours professional preparation must be earned in residence.)"

INTERNSHIP EXPERIENCE AND OBSERVATION AND PRACTICE TEACHING

Students are cautioned to note carefully the two plans set up by the State Department for actual experiences in public schools, as follows: (1) The internship plan is a method of practicum in which the student spends eight consecutive weeks as an intern in a public school jointly approved by the State Department and the University. (2) The directed observation and practice teaching plan affords the student opportunity for participation in the activities of his chosen field of work in a public school which may be reached from the Stetson campus. This work is carried throughout the year in connection with other subjects.

Both the above plans of practicum are offered in 1946-1947 and students should elect the plan they prefer.

Minimum Requirements for Elementary School Teachers:

"The applicant must hold a degree based on four years' work in a standard institution and must have a major in elementary education approved by the state department—or must have met the requirements for the undergraduate certificate covering the elementary school course in an institution whose curriculum is approved by the department—or must have met the requirements for the undergraduate certificate and have credit in the following fields. (a) educational psychology or child and adolescent psychology, (b) history and principles of education or introductory education, (c) elementary school curriculum or general methods of teaching in the elementary school, (d) principles and methods of teaching reading, (e) children's literature, (f) methods and materials in science in the elementary school, (g) methods and materials in social studies in the elementary school, (h) geography, (i) methods and materials in health education in the elementary school, (j) methods and materials in arithmetic in the elementary school, (k) methods and materials in physical education in the elementary school, (l) four semester hours in public school music, (m) four semester hours in public school art, (n) a credit or non-credit course in penmanship."

SUBJECT MATTER REQUIREMENTS FOR SECONDARY TEACHERS

These requirements are specific for each subject and each subject field in which the candidate expects to teach. These requirements are in addition to the eighteen hours in education (twenty hours if the internship plan is elected). They should be checked in advance in the Dean's office and anticipated in planning the candidate's course. Reference here is made to the subjects required as per Bulletin A, published by the State Board of Education, September 1944.

EDUCATION

Unless otherwise noted each course number carries a credit of one major.

En204. Methods and Materials for Health Education. (For full description see Hpe204.)

En210. Introduction to Education. A general overview of the total field of education in the United States. This course should be taken before other courses in education by all who expect to obtain a teacher's certificate or major in education. It is required of all students registered for the two-year teacher training course. Fall and Spring.

En301. History of Education from Ancient to Modern Times. The course is designed for the more advanced students and aims to give the historical background of the present-day theories and systems of education and to evaluate the contributions made by the leading nations. Collateral reading and reports are required. Offered on demand.

En302. History of Education in the United States. A course which traces the development of education in the United States from Colonial times to the present. The social and cultural backgrounds, the leaders and forces which have influenced the character of education, and the various changes in the organization and curricula of public schools are stressed. Fall.

En303. Elementary Curriculum. In this course particular emphasis is given to the study of integrating the program by means of the unit plan. An analysis of the recent bulletins of the State Department of Education treating the improvement of instruction and practice in the elementary schools will be made. Fall.

En305. The Teaching of Physical Education in the Elementary School. (For full description of course see Hpe305.) Fall.

En306. The Teaching of Physical Education in High School. (For full description of course see Hpe306.) Winter.

En308. The Teaching of English in High School. A study of the principles of selecting, interpreting, and teaching literature and of developing power of expression, both oral and written. The course is made practical through lesson plans, assignments, and the examination of high school texts and other aids in the teaching of high school English. One class hour a week will be devoted to a review of English grammar. Offered on demand.

En309. Educational Psychology. (For full description of course see Psy309.) Spring.

En310. Directing Learning in the Secondary School. The principles and practices involved in the organization and direction of the study and activities carried on in the classroom at the junior or senior high school level. The outcomes of learning, motivating principles, unit organization, the unit-laboratory technique and the application of modern methods in the subject fields of each student's interest. Required course. On demand. Fall.

En311. Extra-curriculum Activities. A study of the nature and value of the activities included in the various non-credit but important student organizations of the junior and senior high schools. Consideration will be given to the various ways of conducting the organized clubs and other junior and senior high school extra-curricular activities. Offered on demand.

En312. Curriculum Principles. A general survey of curriculum practices and organization in both elementary and secondary schools in the light of modern social trends. This course may be used for curriculum credit in either elementary or secondary education in Florida. Offered on demand. Summer.

En313. The High School Curriculum. This is a study of the emerging high school curriculum in America. An analysis of curricula in small and large high schools will be made with an effort to evaluate the issues in secondary education and to determine the most accepted function of secondary education. Offered on demand.

En314. The Junior High School. A course designed to give high school principals and teachers the plans underlying junior high school organization and the development, objectives, and methods of junior high schools in the United States with special reference to Florida. Offered on demand.

En319. Directed Observation in the Primary and Elementary Grades. A course designed to afford directed observation of teaching methods and class-room management in the primary and elementary grades in the public schools. Assigned readings, reports, and lesson planning. Prerequisites: En325 and 326. One and one-half majors credit. Fall and Winter.

En320. Directed Observation and Practice Teaching in the Primary and Elementary Grades. The work in this course will be carried on in cooperating public schools. Practice in planning courses and in teaching will be done under the joint direction of the cooperating public schools and the University. Lesson plans, reports, and conferences are required. Prerequisites: En319 and 325, 326. One and one-half majors credit. Winter and Spring.

En324. Literature for Children. A course designed to create a genuine interest in children's books and to develop a working knowledge of children's literature discovering sources and ways of presenting it most effectively to children. Spring.

En325, 326. Elementary School Methods. This is a general methods course which is designed to give the student a comprehensive grasp of the most recent and approved methods of subject matter presentation in the elementary school. A careful analysis of lesson planning and consideration of classroom procedure will be made. Methods of teaching reading, spelling, and language will be studied during the first semester. The second semester's work will be a treatment of methods in teaching arithmetic, social studies, and science. This course has been approved by the State Department of Education as meeting the requirements set forth in the 1944 handbook in the following elementary school subjects: principles and methods of teaching reading science, arithmetic, social studies and penmanship. Required course. Winter and Spring.

En327. Administrative Problems and Practices. A course designed to introduce to the prospective teacher the problems to be met in the classroom, the school, and community and to suggest ways of meeting them. Responsibilities for the general welfare and behavior of the pupils, the community activities and professional ethics as well as the personal health and growth of the teacher are important features of the course. Winter.

En330. Methods of Teaching Foreign Languages in High School and Grades. (See Fh311)

En335. Cooperative Administration, Supervision, and Guidance in the Secondary School. A course of the workshop type designed and conducted to meet the mutual problems and projects of teachers, principals, and supervisors. The main topics and problems are to be set up by the group with the assistance of the instructor. One major. Summer.

En405. Philosophy of Education. A critical examination of the aims and ideals of current educational theory and practice in order to coordinate and reconcile conflicting points of view and to determine the fundamental principles of a sound and progressive school system. Winter.

En406. Character Education. The aim of this course is to help teachers appreciate the potentialities of the school for character education, and to help them discover the guiding principles and methods of character education programs that have been organized. Offered on demand.

En410. Guidance. A review of the problems of the personal adjustment of the individual to his social and educational environment and to his particular vocation. Spring, 1947-48.

En413. Principles of Secondary Education. A study of the principles of secondary education as a basis for an evaluation of present theory and practice. Offered on demand.

En417. Directed Observation in the Junior and Senior High Schools. A course designed to afford directed observation of teaching methods and class-room management in the junior and senior high schools. Assigned readings, reports, and lesson planning. Open only to seniors. One and one-half majors credit. Fall and Winter.

En418. Directed Observation and Practice Teaching in the Secondary School. The work in this course will be carried on in cooperating public schools. Practice in planning courses and in teaching will be done under joint direction of the cooperating public schools and the University. Lesson plans, reports, and conferences are required. Prerequisites: En310 and 327. One and one-half majors. Winter and Spring.

En420. Elementary School Supervision. A course dealing with the principles of supervision at the elementary school level. Such topics as concept and functions of supervision, the administrative organization, objectives, and evaluative practices in supervision will be studied. Summer.

En425. Practice Teaching in Physical Education in the Elementary School. (For full description of course see Hpe425.)

En426. Practice Teaching in Physical Education in the Secondary School. (For full description of course see Hpe426.)

En430. Internship Practice. A plan of pre-training in which the student spends eight or more weeks in a public school participating in all of the activities of a teaching situation. The preparation and follow-up work of this practicum will be done at the University under the direction of the Department of Education and the student's major professor. Hours to be arranged. Winter or Spring.

En432. Seminar for Internship Students. A coordinated plan of instruction which will precede and follow the practice work done in the public schools. Credit to be arranged. Winter or Spring.

The following courses represent a sequence which students in educational administration are advised to follow:

En440. Educational Administration. Attention is directed to the administrative duties and functions of the elementary school principal. On demand.

En441. Educational Administration. Attention is given to the administrative duties and functions of the secondary school principal. On demand.

En442. Educational Administration. Attention is directed to the administrative duties and functions of the supervising principal, the city and county superintendent. In each of the above courses consideration is given to the role of leadership required in positions of this type as well as to the organization and discharge of routine functions. On demand.

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY

The study of Psychology should give the student a better understanding of human nature, of himself and others. It may be defined as the science of the activities of the individual. Biology and Sociology are the closest allies of Psychology since personality is the product of hereditary and environmental forces. As a social science Psychology is of both practical and scientific value in its application to education, business, law, medicine, music, art and religion. Psychology 203 is the introductory course, and is prerequisite to all other courses in the department. To major in Psychology a student must take eight majors in Psychology, two majors in Sociology, two majors in other social sciences, and one major in Zoology. A course in Genetics is strongly recommended.

Each course listed below carries a credit of one major.

Psy203. General Psychology. A study of the motivating factors in behavior, the nervous system, the sense organs, attention and its relation to activity, sensations and discriminative responses. Such psychological processes as perception, memory, imagination, and reasoning, and the native traits, feelings, and emotions are studied with reference to their meaning and importance in conscious mental life. Fall, Winter, and Spring.

Psy204. The Psychology of Personality. A course designed to set forth the psychological principles involved in the development of an integrated and wholesome personality and the basic factors involved in a fundamentally sound program of improvement in both personal and social adjustment. The everyday problems demanding adjustment which arise in civilian and military life will be studied. This course is designed to follow the introductory course in general psychology in the Sophomore year. On demand.

Psy306. Applied Psychology. The practical use of psychology in increasing human efficiency and improving personality; its law as applied in business management, salesmanship, advertising, law, medicine and general personnel problems in other fields. Prerequisite: Psy203 or its equivalent. Winter.

Psy309. Educational Psychology. A study of the application of psychological principles to such problems as teachers meet in guiding the development of the mental life of growing children. It treats of the psychological phenomena that underlie the process of education. The learning process, motivation, individual differences and their measurement, personality problems and statistical procedures are matters of major consideration. Spring.

Psy316. Psychology of Childhood and Adolescence. The important characteristics of the unfolding of the mental life; how far it is conditioned by heredity and how far by environment; the results of scientific studies regarding the nature and needs of children, personality defects, and the application of principles of somatic and mental hygiene are covered in this course. Winter.

Psy401. Social Psychology. (For full description of course see Sy401.)

Psy404. Mental Hygiene. A study of the application of psychology and psychiatry to the solution of mental problems and conflicts arising in the home, the school, and other institutions. Abnormalities of personality receive only minor consideration. Principles of mental hygiene looking to the development of integration of personality and of social sympathy are developed. Parallel reading, reports, discussions. Spring.

Psy407. The Psychology of Christian Personality. (For full description of course, see Rn407.)

Psy408. Psychology of Individual Differences. The important differences among people are treated under the headings of physical characteristics, intelligence, race, and sex. Special attention is directed to the relation of individual differences to educational problems and to personality development. The applications of differential psychology in business and industry will be studied. Fall.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND RECREATION

The demand for teachers of physical education, coaches, and directors of play and recreation is increasing year by year. Stetson University is meeting this demand by offering training in Health, Physical Education, and Recreation for students who are interested in this phase of the educational program. The aim of the Department is to train efficient teachers, coaches, and recreational leaders who are interested in sports and recreational activities for all. The University offers a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Science and a major in Health and Physical Education; a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Health and Physical Education and a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Recreation. The following requirements must be met for these degrees.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE WITH A MAJOR IN SCIENCE AND A MAJOR IN HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The following course is designed to prepare students for teaching Health and Physical Education and for coaching in the public schools.

A student who successfully completes the course as outlined and has thirty-six majors of credit will receive a B. S. degree with a major in Health and Physical Education. Students who major in Health and Physical Education are required to take two physical activity courses each quarter for the first two years of their college work and for the last two years one activity course for each quarter.

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Unless otherwise noted each numbered course carries a credit of one major.

Hpe103. Hygiene. A course dealing with the problems of healthful living. Offered each quarter.

Hpe204. Methods and Materials for Health Education. A course designed to acquaint prospective teachers with the principles and materials of health education, and to present effective teaching methods to meet the needs of the school and community. It considers the various topics concerned in the maintenance of the health of the child. The interrelation of health subjects in the school curriculum is emphasized. Spring.

Hpe205. Arts and Crafts. This course deals with methods, materials, and instructions in all types of woodcraft, leather craft, metal craft, linoleum block printing and elementary art. Fall.

Hpe207. History of Physical Education and Recreation. A course covering the history and trends of Physical Education and Recreation. It is designed to give a background for an understanding of the present day needs in this field of education. Spring. 1947.

Hpe210. Recreational, Camp, and Club Leadership. A course designed to train counselors for camp work; recreational directors for playground work; and leaders of Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Campfire Girls. Students will learn the principles and problems of leadership. Winter. 1946.

Hpe211. First Aid. A standard and advanced course for all students who are interested in the emergency care of the body. One minor. Spring.

Hpe212. First Aid for Instructors. An instructor's course for all students interested in obtaining an instructor's certificate from the American Red Cross. Prerequisite: Hpe211. One minor. Spring.

Hpe213, 214. Theory and Practice of Officiating. This course gives the student an opportunity to receive national ratings as an official. Students will have ample practice officiating in the following sports: speedball, basketball, softball, volleyball, and all major individual sports. For women only. One minor. Winter and Spring.

Hpe301. Principles, Organization, and Administration of Physical Education and Recreation. The principles of Physical Education, its objectives, and its methods in terms of educational standards. Administrative policies of physical education and recreational departments in schools and colleges; intercollegiate and intramural athletics from the standpoint of executive responsibilities; program of activities; personnel of department; business management; finances; construction, equipment and care of plant; selection and supervision of staff; organization and administration of activities. Fall.

Hpe305. The Teaching of Physical Education in the Elementary School. The principles of selection and adaptation of physical education as applied to the elementary school; discussions of physical activities; methods of instruction and supervision; lesson planning. All the young men of the University are required to take Physical Education three hours per week for the first two years of their college work. No one will be excused except upon the recommendation of the University physician. It is the hope and ideal of the Physical Education Department to improve the physical and mental health of all who participate.

The program of activities for the year will cover the following: calisthenics, touch football, soccer, volleyball, basketball, boxing, and diamond ball. These sports are on the schedule, and in addition there are horseshoes, handball, paddle handball, badminton, and tennis.

An Intramural Program is carried on for the benefit of all students.

College of Law

HISTORY

The College of Law of John B. Stetson University is the oldest law school in Florida. The first catalogue of the College of Law, published in 1900, carries this statement: "By reason of repeated requests from prominent members of the bar and from many others, the College of Law of the John B. Stetson University will be opened October 2nd, 1900. With no law school in the State of Florida, with the number of young men in the State who desire to study law and the number who, on account of their own health or that of their friends, are attracted southward by our genial winter climate, it is believed there is room here to build up a prosperous school. In this attempt, we most earnestly ask for the hearty co-operation of every member of the bar in the State."

In 1923 the course of study was increased to three years and the entrance requirements were raised to two years of college work. In 1939 the entrance requirements were raised further so that only students who had a bachelor's degree or who had completed three years of a combined academic-law course were admitted. Beginning with the summer session of 1942, under the Wartime Program, students will be admitted who have completed one-half of the work acceptable for a Bachelor's degree.

STANDING OF THE COLLEGE OF LAW

The Council on Legal Education of the American Bar Association and the Association of American Law Schools have been the primary forces in the improvement of legal education in the United States. They are the recognized accrediting agencies of law schools.

In 1921 the American Bar Association adopted a resolution providing in part as follows:

- (1) The American Bar Association is of the opinion that every candidate for admission to the bar should give evidence of graduation from a law school complying with the following standards:
 - (a) It shall require as a condition of admission at least two years of study in a college.
 - (b) It shall require its students to pursue a course of three years' duration if they devote substantially all of their working time to their studies, and a longer course, equivalent in the number of working hours, if they devote only part of their working time to their studies.
 - (c) It shall provide an adequate library available for the use of the students.
 - (d) It shall have among its teachers a sufficient number giving their entire time to the school to insure actual personal acquaintance and influence with the whole student body.

The College of Law has complied with these requirements and is classified by the American Bar Association as an "approved law school."

The standards of the Association of American Law Schools, of which the College of Law is a member, are substantially the same.

The College of Law offers the course of study approved by the Supreme Court of Florida so that graduates of the College of Law are admitted to practice in Florida without undergoing a bar examination.

PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The purpose of the College of Law is to prepare students for the practice of law. Although the basis of the instruction provided is furnished by the general principles of the Anglo-American common law, developed by thorough discussion of reported cases in the classroom, effort is made to emphasize the statutory and judicial modifications that have been made to the common law in Florida.

The faculty of the College of Law endeavors to give such training and instruction as will fit young men and women for the active duties of the office and courtroom. At the same time effort is made to impress upon the students both in the classroom and in private conferences a high conception of the ethics of the legal profession and the citizenship responsibilities of the profession, without which, knowledge of the law may be detrimental both to the individual and to the state. Effort is further made to search for and to evaluate the philosophy which underlies the various principles of law.

In procedural or adjective law a similar method of instruction is supplemented by careful instruction in pleading and practice through the drafting of legal papers and through a well-developed practice court.

PRACTICE COURT

The course in Practice Court for third year law students is designed to crystallize into pragmatic realities the theories they have acquired in their various courses of substantive and adjective law.

A regular feature of the course consists of a series of practical lectures on the various phases of trial and appellate procedure delivered by outstanding lawyers and judges, as well as other court officers.

This course acquaints the student with the proper methods in approaching intricate practical legal questions by requiring him to solve problems which are propounded by practicing attorneys. After the student presents his solution, the author of the problems lectures upon the subject.

The course culminates in the actual trial of cases by the students in accordance with the Florida procedure. The facts in the case are assigned during the first quarter. The students thereupon issue, serve, and return any process necessary, prepare the proper pleadings, and bring the case to issue on a question of fact. During the second quarter, after the students have prepared their trial briefs including the law pertaining to the testimony and evidence they desire to present, the cases are set for trial. The trials are held in a room equipped to resemble a court room. Either a lawyer or a law professor sits as judge. Townspeople or upper class students serve in the capacity of jurors. An advanced stenographic student serves as court reporter. Every effort is made to achieve the atmosphere and to recognize the requirements which prevail at an actual trial.

Each student participates in one case at law and one in equity.

PRIZES IN THE COLLEGE OF LAW

Redfearn Law Prize. Dr. D. H. Redfearn of the Miami Bar offers an award of fifty dollars for the best essay on an assigned legal subject. For the year 1941-1942 the subject was "The Administration of Probation and Parole." This contest is open to all students in the College of Law.

The Harrison Prize. The Harrison Company, law book publishers of Atlanta, offers a set of the Florida Reports, Vols. 1 to 22, Reprint Edition, as a prize to the member of the graduating class of the College of Law who makes the highest average on his entire three-year course.

American Jurisprudence Prize. To the student attaining the highest grade in any of certain courses the publishers of American Jurisprudence offer as a prize the topic from American Jurisprudence, bound in separate form.

Corpus Juris Secundum Prize. To the student attaining the highest grade in any of certain courses the publishers of Corpus Juris Secundum offer as a prize the topic from Corpus Juris Secundum, bound in separate form.

Phi Alpha Delta Scholarship Award. The Phi Alpha Delta legal fraternity awards a prize to the graduating member of the fraternity who has maintained the highest scholastic average during the period of his enrollment in the College of Law.

LAW STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The Stetson Law Student Association is composed of all students regularly enrolled in the College of Law. The purposes of the Association are: to maintain a closer relationship between the individual student and the administration; to promote the interests of the students individually and collectively; to provide a measure of self-government for the members; and, to develop a feeling of good will and understanding between the students and the faculty.

LEGAL FRATERNITY

Phi Alpha Delta. The David J. Brewer Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law fraternity was installed at Stetson in 1915.

Membership is open to regularly enrolled students in the College of Law. The purpose of this organization is to encourage scholarship, to promote the discussion of legal subjects, to effectuate fellowship, and to foster the high ideals of the legal profession.

LIBRARY

The Law Library now contains 14,000 volumes and several hundred are added annually. It has received gifts from John B. Stetson, Jr., Justice William H. Ellis, certain members of the Florida Bar, and other friends. In the Law Library are found the published reports of the courts of every state and of the federal courts, the English Law Reports, the English Reprint, the standard digests, encyclopedias, selected and annotated cases, citators, legal periodicals, statutes, American and English treatises and textbooks.

ADMISSION

Application for admission to the College of Law must be made to the Registrar, who receives and records all entrance credentials. If the conditions of admission are satisfied, the Registrar will issue a certificate of admission which is to be presented to the Dean of the College of Law at the time of registration. If the Dean is satisfied that all requirements have been met, the applicant will be admitted.

To be admitted to the College of Law as a candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL. B.) the applicant must:

1. Hold an A. B. or B. S. degree from Stetson, or an equivalent degree from some other college or university of approved standing. or
2. Have completed eighteen majors of credit and have a C+ average (2.0) for all work undertaken, that is, one-half of the work acceptable for a Bachelor's degree granted on the basis of a four-year period of study in the College of Liberal Arts of John B. Stetson University, or equivalent work in a college or university of approved standing. The pre-legal work required means work done in residence and excludes all non-theory courses, such as Military Science, Hygiene, Domestic Arts, Physical Education, and Music.
3. Have furnished satisfactory evidence of high character and good standing.

All students entering the College of Law are governed by the same regulations as students transferring to the College of Liberal Arts. at John B. Stetson University.

Advanced Standing. Any person who meets the above entrance requirements and who has been in attendance as a regular student at a law school which is a member of the Association of American Law Schools or which is on the approved list of the American Bar Association and who has maintained a "C" average may be admitted to advanced standing. No grade below "C" will be accepted on transfer for credit toward a law degree. The Senior year must be spent in residence

SPECIAL STUDENTS

Persons not less than twenty-three years of age who cannot satisfy the entrance requirements established for candidates for the law degree, but who give cogent evidence that their experiences and training have specially equipped them to engage successfully in the study of law, despite the lack of required college credits, may, by vote of the faculty of the College of Law, be admitted as special students; provided, however, that the number of such students admitted each year does not exceed ten per cent. of the average number of students first entering the school in each of the two preceding years. Special students must matriculate in the regular manner and are subject to the same rules and regulations as other students. No degree will be conferred upon any special student.

DEGREE

The degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL.B) is conferred upon those students who have met the entrance requirements of the College of Law, and who have completed satisfactorily twenty-four majors of law study and have a 2.0 quality point average for all work undertaken, including courses failed. The student must be in residence in a law school three years, the last year of which must be in residence in Stetson. A student who has been in residence for at least two years and who has earned a 4.0 quality point average shall be graduated "Cum Laude" (with honor); a student who has been in residence for at least two years and who has earned a 4.5 quality point average shall be graduated "Magna Cum Laude" (with great honor). The quality point average is the ratio of the number of quality points earned to the number of majors undertaken.

GRADES

A grade of "A" in any course secures five quality points for each major of credit; "B+," four quality points; "B," three quality points; "C+," two quality points; "C," one quality point; "D," none; "F," minus one quality point. A grade of "F" signifies failure and the course must be repeated and passed before credit can be given. A second examination is never allowed and a course may not be repeated to raise a passing grade. In the event of incomplete work or absence from examination because of illness or other approved reason a temporary grade of

"I" will be given. This grade must be removed during the next quarter of residence or it automatically becomes "F." At least two quality points for each major carried must be earned.

ACADEMIC PROBATION AND SUSPENSION

A student who has been in attendance at least one year and who fails as much as two-thirds of his work in any quarter and does not have a cumulative quality point average of 2.0 or better shall be dropped from the College of Law for one quarter. A student who is suspended a second time under this rule may not re-enter except by special permission of the faculty of the College of Law.

A student whose cumulative quality point average falls below 2.0 at the end of any quarter shall be placed on academic probation. If he does not have a cumulative quality point average of 2.0 by the end of the second subsequent quarter while he is in attendance he shall be dropped from the College of Law.

ATTENDANCE

Although no fixed requirement regarding attendance prevails, when, in the opinion of the faculty, any student has been absent from a course to such extent that the quality of his work in that course is unduly impaired, he shall be given a notice to that effect. If such student be absent again from that course, he shall be dropped from the course, subject to reinstatement by the faculty when such action is deemed advisable.

EXAMINATIONS

The faculty endeavors to characterize the work of the College of Law by its completeness and thoroughness. In pursuance of this objective a period is set apart at the close of each quarter for the examination of all students upon the work of the quarter. The examinations are in writing and are rigid and searching.

ADMISSION TO THE BAR

The graduates of the College of Law, upon presentation of their diplomas duly issued by the proper authorities and upon furnishing satisfactory evidence that they are twenty-one years of age and of good moral character, are, without examination, licensed by the Florida State Board of Law Examiners to practice in all the courts of the State of Florida.

LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

The administration and faculty of Stetson University feel that correct and effective use of English should be a distinguishing mark of every graduate of the University. Accordingly, a standing Committee on Students' Use of English has been established and is empowered to require corrective work of any student reported to it by the faculty. In extreme cases, a student's degree may be withheld until he demonstrates the required proficiency in his use of English.

School of Music

The purpose of the School of Music is to train students for the profession of Music. It offers a thorough course in theory in all its branches and history of music, voice, piano, organ, stringed and wind instruments, and public school music. Students not majoring in music are offered the opportunity to study music as a cultural subject. The school also maintains a preparatory department. The Stetson School of Music is a member of the National Association of Schools of Music.

BUILDINGS AND EQUIPMENT

DeLand Hall, occupied by the School of Music, provides offices, studios, class rooms, practice rooms, and a library for music and records. The General Library of the University provides an adequate collection of books on music and music magazines. The auditorium in Elizabeth Hall is equipped with a three-manual organ and other general equipment needed for recitals, concerts, chamber music, and recordings. A room in which recordings may be made of individual or group performances is also in Elizabeth Hall. The recording machine, a Universal Professional model, is the gift of Grafton H. Pyne, Jr.

The Band Hall provides an office for the director of the band, a practice hall, practice rooms, and rooms for the care of instruments and uniforms.

ADMISSION

The general requirements for admission to the School of Music are the same as the requirements for admission to the College of Liberal Arts. The music requirements are stated with the descriptions of each course.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENT

The requirements for residence in the School of Music are the same as the requirements for residence in the College of Liberal Arts.

CREDITS IN MUSIC ALLOWED AS ELECTIVES TOWARD THE A. B. DEGREE

A maximum of nine majors in Music, three of which must be in theoretical work, will be accepted as a part of the credits required for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in the College of Liberal Arts, when a student majors in some subject other than Music.

RECITALS AND CONCERTS

Experience in public performance is provided through frequent recitals given in the auditorium and the studios, and by performances of oratorios, light operas, band and orchestra concerts.

Students majoring in music are required to attend recitals.

ARTIST PROGRAMS

The student will have frequent opportunities for hearing concerts through the Faculty Recital and Artist Series at the University and through group attendance, when desired, at the Civic Music Association and similar concerts in Daytona Beach and Orlando.

SCHOLARSHIPS

A number of partial scholarships are offered by the School of Music to students wishing to sing in the Chorus or play in the Band or Orchestra. These scholarships are awarded to students of ability who are in need of financial assistance. The student is required to have had experience in a High School or other music organization. All applications for music scholarships should be sent to the Director of the School of Music.

STUDENT AID

Assistance is given to a number of students who need to earn part of their expenses while in college by giving them an opportunity to work in the School of Music as stenographers, accompanists, or as assistants in the library. Students working more than ten hours each week may not take more than two and one-half majors.

CLASSIFICATIONS OF STUDENTS

Students are registered under one of the following classifications:

- I. Full-time students:
 - a. Students who are candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Music.
 - b. Students who are candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts with a major in music.
- II. Part-time students:

Students who are pursuing only a part of the regular course of study.
- III. Special students:

Students who are registered for applied Music only.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

The Music School Association. This organization is composed of the students of the School of Music. According to the constitution, which was adopted by the student body in the spring of 1940, its officers are elected by general vote of the students in the spring of each year. The purpose of this organization is to develop initiative in student activities, to create a more desirable relationship between the students and faculty, and to strengthen all connections between the School of Music and the other schools of the University.

The Stetson Glee Clubs. The University has two glee clubs, one for women and one for men. These clubs operate as separate units, and combine to form the University Chorus. The glee clubs appear in concert at the University and in many cities throughout the State. The chorus appears in concert at Christmas, in the Spring, and at Commencement. The Radio Chorus of picked voices appears in concert throughout the state. Membership in these organizations is competitive.

The Stetson Symphony Orchestra. The Stetson Symphony Orchestra was organized to provide the student opportunity for orchestral experience as player, soloist, conductor, composer, or arranger. Sight reading is stressed. The repertory includes standard overtures, symphonies, concertos, classical and modern works.

The Stetson Little Symphony. The Stetson Little Symphony is a small orchestra composed of experienced student players. It performs as opera and oratorio orchestra, and presents original arrangements and compositions. It furnishes music for University plays and on those occasions is led by student conductors.

The Stetson Band. The Stetson Band presents concerts throughout the year in Elizabeth Hall auditorium and at the city band shell. It also presents concerts in cities throughout the state.

Phi Beta. Eta Chapter of Phi Beta was established at Stetson in 1921, especially for young women who are outstanding in the field of music. It is a national professional fraternity striving for professional achievement in music or dramatics, high ideals in womanhood, and scholarship. It is a member of the women's national Professional Pan-Hellenic Society. Its members act as hostesses for all music activities.

Kappa Kappa Psi. Kappa Kappa Psi, a national band fraternity, was founded to promote the best interests of college bandmen and to encourage a high type of band music. In carrying out the full purpose of the fraternity, each candidate for initiation must be an outstanding student.

Delta Gamma Phi. Delta Gamma Phi, honorary sorority for women who are outstanding in the band was founded at Stetson in 1940 as a sister organization to Kappa Kappa Psi. Its purpose is to promote a spirit of cooperation and fellowship among the women in the band.

School of Business

The purpose of the School of Business is to enable students to gain an understanding of fundamental economic and business principles, techniques, and problems, and to aid in preparing them for eventual participation in business and industry. The four-year courses outlined below are designed to provide in the first two years a broad cultural background and to furnish in the last two years business training to those who look forward to business careers. The School of Business offers courses in Accounting, Business Administration, Economics, and Secretarial Science.

Admission

The requirements for admission to the School of Business are the same as those of the College of Liberal Arts.

Requirements

The School of Business offers programs of study leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Science with a major in Business Administration and of Bachelor of Science with a major in Secretarial Science. For the degree of Bachelor of Science in Business Administration the course outline on the next page must be followed. The specific courses required in partial fulfillment of these requirements are outlined below. In order that the student may select a unified program in his Junior and Senior years he is required also to elect, in consultation with his adviser, courses in one of the following specialization groups: Accounting, Banking and Finance, Marketing and Merchandising, General Business, and Business and Law.

The requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Secretarial Science are outlined below. Any student desiring a one-year Secretarial course may take the program of study designed especially to meet his needs. Upon satisfactory completion of the one-year course a certificate will be awarded. The Gregg system of shorthand is taught.

A two-year Accounting course is also offered, see outline.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE WITH A MAJOR IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The four-year course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Business Administration outlined below is designed to provide a broad cultural background as well as to furnish a thorough business training to those who look forward to business careers.

SECRETARIAL SCIENCE

Students who have not had shorthand and typewriting before entering college should register for Beginning Typewriting, Se101, and Beginning Shorthand, Se107. Students who have had it prior to entering college but feel that they would benefit by repeating these subjects, may do so if the student has sufficient college entrance credits to be able to forfeit the high school credits in these subjects, or if they agree to take the work on a non-credit basis. Those who have had one or two years of typewriting in high school and who feel that they can meet the requirements for advanced work will be required to take a speed test during freshman orientation week to determine whether they should register for intermediate or advanced typing. Those who have had two years of shorthand in high school may register for Advanced Shorthand, Se207.

All students who are majoring in Secretarial Science, and who expect to teach this subject in the public schools, must meet the state requirement of eighteen semester hours or five and four-tenths majors in Education in order to qualify for a state certificate. These subjects may be taken as elective during the junior and senior years. Each course number carries a credit of one major unless otherwise noted.

Se101, 102, 103. Beginning Typewriting. The proper techniques of typewriting and a mastery of the keyboard are developed. Students are taught the various parts of the typewriter and the care of the machine. The form and content of a business letter, addressing envelopes, centering, tabulation, dictation direct to the typist, typing of legal documents, and cutting a duplicating stencil are emphasized. Students not enrolled in the School of Business may receive one minor credit for each quarter of this course. At the instructor's discretion, additional help will be given to certain students. The student must attain a minimum speed of thirty words per minute on the completion of this course. Fall, Winter, Spring. Credit, one minor each quarter.

Se107, 108, 109. Beginning Shorthand. Fundamentals of the Gregg system of shorthand progressing through drills, with an objective of ability to take dictation at the minimum rate of eighty words a minute. Drills in reading from notes and transcribing notes taken in dictation exercises. The aim of the course is the attainment of a minimum dictation speed of eighty words a minute for five minutes with not less than ninety-five per cent accuracy in transcription. Fall, Winter, Spring.

Se110, 111, 112. Intermediate Typewriting. Students with some previous experience in typewriting, but without ability to type more than thirty words per minute, may register for this course rather than Se101, 102, 103. Proper techniques of typewriting, the various parts of the machine, and care of the typewriter are taught. Special drills train the student in the form and content of business letters, addressing envelopes, centering, tabulating, dictation direct to the typist, typing of legal documents, business forms, manuscripts, and cutting of duplicating stencils. At the instructor's discretion, additional help will be given to certain students. The student must attain a minimum speed of thirty-five words per minute on completion of this course. Fall, Winter, and Spring. Credit, one minor each quarter.

Se201, 202, 203. Advanced Typewriting. A continuation of Se101, 102, 103 in which speed and accuracy in typewriting are stressed. The student is also trained in tabulation, legal work, business forms, etc. Standard speed tests are given. The student is also taught to take dictation at the machine and to write correctly and arrange attractively manuscripts and continuous articles. At the instructor's discretion, additional help will be given to certain students. The student must attain a minimum speed of fifty words per minute on the completion of this course. Fall, Winter, Spring. Credit, one minor each quarter.

Se204. Business Correspondence. Written English as applied to and used in business, with emphasis on training in structure and composition of business letters of every nature. A review of English grammar, punctuation, and spelling. Accessory study is offered in the elements of advertising and effective address in speaking. Winter.

Se205. Secretarial Training. A course designed to establish the principles of efficient office conduct, procedure, and service. The areas covered include duplicating, filing procedures and equipment, business reference books, legal forms, and personality development. The aim of the course is to provide a basic training in the practical and functional requirements for a secretarial assistant. Spring.

Se207, 208, 209. Advanced Shorthand. This course trains the student to take dictation from unfamiliar matter at rates varying from one hundred to one hundred and twenty words per minute. Attention is given to arrangement, spelling, punctuation, syllabication, etc. Review of brief and special forms constitutes an important phase of the work. Special attention is devoted to phrasing and to building up a shorthand vocabulary. The objective of the course is to maintain a minimum speed of one hundred words per minute during a fifteen minute period of sustained dictation. Fall, Winter, Spring.

Se305, 306, 307. Office Experience. A course in actual office work in a real office under the every-day head of the office and the instructor in office experience; includes personal instruction and actual practice. Six hours of work in an office each week plus one hour of recitation. Fall, Winter, Spring.

Se406, 407. Transcription. Abundant practice in order to gain speed in transcribing from shorthand notes to the typewriter. The aim of the course is to enable the student to attain a speed of forty words a minute in transcribing. Prerequisites: Se201, 202, 203 and Se207, 208, 209. Fall and Winter.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

CLUBS AND ASSOCIATIONS

The Camera Club. The purpose of the Camera Club is to foster an interest in photography as a hobby. It was established on Stetson's campus during the Spring quarter of 1944. To be eligible for membership, students must have a scholastic rating of B or above and express a keen interest in photography.

International Relations Club. The International Relations Club was organized in 1938 under the sponsorship of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, which furnishes a bi-monthly review of current world news to each member and sends books on current world affairs for the use of the club. The purpose of the International Relations Club is to stimulate a greater interest in and a better understanding of international affairs.

The Stetson Blazer Club. This organization is composed of outstanding women of the W. A. A. who have received letters and blazers for achievement in sports, scholarship, service, and sportsmanship. Election to membership in the Blazer Club is the highest athletic honor that a woman in the University may receive.

The Stetson Commerce Club. The Stetson Commerce Club, organized in 1937, is composed of the sophomore, junior, and senior students in the School of Business who have maintained a minimum average of 4.0. The purpose of this organization is to develop a better understanding of the principles and problems of business.

Stetson Student Association. The student government organization of the entire student body is called the Student Association of John B. Stetson University, of which every student matriculating in the University automatically becomes a member and is subject to its rules and regulations. The object of the Association is to represent and further the best interests of the student body and Stetson University in general; to coordinate the various student organizations; and to cooperate with the University authorities for the common good of the institution. Under the Stetson Student Association each College and School of the University has its separate organization.

Women's Athletic Association. Any young woman may belong to this association. The W. A. A. sponsors a high school play day and intramural competition encouraging the participation of the many rather than the few. The W. A. A. has for its use a club room in Cummings Gymnasium.

HONOR SOCIETIES

Beta Chi Omega. Beta Chi Omega, honorary biology organization, was founded at Stetson in 1937 under the name of Beta Key. The purposes of this organization are to promote an increased interest in biology, to stimulate sound scholarship, and to encourage biological investigation. Members are selected from students in advanced biology classes who maintain a scholastic average of B (3.0).

Delta Gamma Phi. Delta Gamma Phi, honorary sorority for women who are outstanding in the band, was founded at Stetson in 1940 as a sister organization to Kappa Kappa Psi. Its purpose is to promote a spirit of cooperation and fellowship among the women in the band.

Der Deutsche Verein. Der Deutsche Verein is an honorary German organization. The members are selected from students in advanced German classes and superior students in freshman and sophomore courses. The purpose of the organization is to foster an interest in the language, the customs, and the literature of Germany.

Gamma Sigma Epsilon. Gamma Sigma Epsilon, national honorary chemistry fraternity, was founded in 1919 at Davidson College, Davidson, North Carolina. As stated in the constitution, the object of the fraternity is to increase interest and scholarship in chemistry, and to promote friendship and the general welfare of chemists. Juniors and seniors majoring in chemistry, whose grades meet the high standard set by the Grand Council, are eligible for election to membership. Beta Beta Chapter was established at Stetson in 1932.

The Honor. The general purpose of the organization known as "The Honor" is: "To concentrate the interest of the Student Government Council on individual students, so that each girl shall have the opportunity of making her life broader and finer, and thus, of making herself more valuable to the people around her, and to her university." The aims of the organization are to aid in the development of all-round young women; to encourage scholarship; to recognize and encourage individual abilities; to promote leadership. Eligibility to membership is based upon fifty points as awarded and planned by the organization and a minimum average of B (3.0).

Kappa Kappa Psi. Kappa Kappa Psi, a national band fraternity, was founded to promote the best interests of college bandmen and to encourage a higher type of band music. In carrying out the full purpose of the fraternity, each candidate for initiation must be an outstanding student.

Kappa Pi. An honorary organization founded in 1935, for the purpose of promoting the interest of art on and off the campus and to create a sincere love of beauty and appreciation of art. The Club makes sketching tours and visits to exhibits throughout the year, and sponsors the annual art exhibit at Commencement. The Hatter Club was installed as a chapter of the National Honorary Art Fraternity, Kappa Pi, in the spring of 1946.

La Franciade. The members of this honorary French organization are selected from students in advanced French courses and superior students in the intermediate courses. The purpose of the society is to foster an extra-curricular interest in the language, the customs, and the literature of France.

The Mystic Krewe. The Mystic Krewe is an organization of junior and senior men students, chosen without regard to fraternity or other affiliation. Selection is governed entirely by the abilities and accomplishments of the individuals. The purpose of the organization is to develop and coordinate a proper spirit among all elements of campus life and activities.

The Order of the Scroll and Key. The Order of the Scroll and Key, founded at Stetson in March, 1940, was formed for the purpose of recognizing and encouraging high scholarship. Members are chosen from the highest ten per cent of the junior and senior classes. No one may be elected who does not possess qualities of leadership.

Phi Alpha Theta. Alpha Zeta chapter was established on this campus in May, 1942. Before that time the group had been known as the History Club. Its purpose is to encourage the study of history in all its different phases. Membership in the national fraternity is open to those students who have had at least twelve semester hours of history with an average above B (3.0). Any student who had a grade below B, no matter if other grades bring the average above B (3.0), is automatically ineligible.

Phi Beta. Eta Chapter of Phi Beta was established at Stetson in 1921, especially for young women who are outstanding in the field of music. It is a national professional fraternity striving for professional achievement in music or dramatics, high ideals in womanhood, and scholarship. It is a member of the national Professional Pan-Hellenic Society. Its members act as hostesses for all music activities.

Phi Society. The Phi Society is an honor society sponsored by members of Phi Beta Kappa in a number of colleges and universities. It gives recognition for scholarly work from the beginning of the college course. It is limited to the courses in Liberal Arts, and to be eligible for membership students must maintain an average grade of B plus (4.0) in their first year of college work.

Pi Gamma Mu. Pi Gamma Mu was organized at Southwestern College, Winfield, Kansas, and now has more than 140 chapters. This organization is not an ordinary honor society. It has no secret features of any kind. Its name is simple and modest, merely the initials of the Greek words meaning "Students of Social Science." The purpose of Pi Gamma Mu is to promote the cause of the scientific study of social problems. Only juniors and seniors who have maintained a high scholarship in the social sciences are eligible to membership.

Pi Kappa Delta. In the spring of 1939, the Florida Beta Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, national forensic fraternity, was installed at Stetson. There are today 174 chapters of this forensic fraternity throughout the United States. The purpose of Pi Kappa Delta is to promote a greater interest in the art of public speaking, and to reward with membership those who have taken an active part in forensic activities.

Sigma Delta Pi. Alpha Kappa Chapter of Sigma Delta Pi was installed at Stetson in 1937. It is a national honorary scholarship fraternity for students majoring or minoring in Spanish. The scholastic requirement is a B (3.0) average in Spanish and a B- (2.5) general average. The prospective member must have six majors of Spanish, or must be taking his sixth when he becomes an active member.

Sigma Pi Sigma. Sigma Pi Sigma is the national honor society in the field of Physics. The Alpha Iota Chapter was installed at Stetson in 1937. Membership in the society is open to juniors and seniors who have completed a minimum of 5 majors in Physics with a scholarship rating of B (3.0) and who give promise of achievement in scientific work.

Theta Alpha Phi. The national honorary dramatic fraternity, Theta Alpha Phi, installed Florida Alpha Chapter at Stetson in 1919. The purposes of this honorary fraternity are to arouse interest, stimulate creativeness, and foster artistic achievement in all of the allied arts and crafts of the theater. Membership in Theta Alpha Phi is limited to juniors and seniors with high scholastic records who have done outstanding work in acting, directing, play writing, backstage activity, or some other phase of dramatic production. Regular meetings of the chapter are held twice a month to foster social and professional advancement.

SOCIAL FRATERNITIES

The seven social fraternities which have chapters at Stetson are:

1. Delta Sigma Phi. This Fraternity, organized in 1898 as a local organization, became the Alpha Chi Chapter of Delta Sigma Phi in 1925.
2. Sigma Nu. The Delta Mu Chapter existed as a local for some years and was installed as a national chapter in 1913.

3. Pi Kappa Phi. The Chi Chapter of this fraternity existed as a local for ten years and became the Chi Chapter of the Pi Kappa Phi in 1921.

4. Delta Delta Delta. The Alpha Delta Chapter of this fraternity was established in 1913. For several years previously it existed as a local.

5. Pi Beta Phi. The Florida Alpha Chapter was established in 1913, having existed as a local for several years previous to that time.

6. Alpha Xi Delta. The Omega Chapter was established at Stetson in 1917.

7. Zeta Tau Alpha. Beta Psi Chapter was established in 1934, after having existed for several years as a local.

Stray Greeks. An organization of fraternity men and women who are members of a fraternity not represented on campus.

Dexioma. The Alpha chapter of Dexioma was established at Stetson in May, 1940. The purpose of the organization is to promote democratic friendship and understanding among its members and to broaden the social, cultural, political, athletic, and religious life of its members. All women in Stetson University who are not affiliated with a national social organization are eligible to be pledged.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

DRAMATICS

The Irving C. Stover Little Theatre play schedule for the season of 1945-46 was as follows: Oct. 18-19, Four Workshop Plays; Nov. 22-23, "The Yellow Jacket" by Hazelton and Benrimo; Jan. 24-25-28-29, "Claudia" by Rose Franken; Feb. 28, March 1-4, "The Cradle Song" by Martinez Sierra; March 8-9, State High School Drama Festival; March 14-15, "Cinderella" by Charlotte Choppenning (Children's Theatre); April 4-5, "The Torchbearers" by George Kelly; May 2-3, "Midsummer Night's Dream" by William Shakespeare; May 16-17, Four Workshop Plays.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

The Hatter. The Hatter is the year book of the students of Stetson and is published by the junior classes of the College of Liberal Arts, the College of Law, the School of Music, and the School of Business.

The Stetson Reporter. The Stetson Reporter is a weekly newspaper published by the students under the supervision of the Director of the Department of Journalism.

The Stetsonian. The Stetsonian is a campus magazine in which selected literary exercises of the students and faculty are published.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Alumni Association includes all students who have graduated from Stetson and all who have attended the institution. Associated with it are Stetson Alumni Clubs, which have been formed in several counties of Florida.

The officers of the Alumni Association, elected at the annual meeting in February, 1942, are President, Judge Frank Smith, Ph. B., Orlando; Vice Presidents, Rev. R. Grady Snowden, A. B., DeLand; J. B. Rodgers, LL. B., Winter Garden; Tom Cobb, LL. B., Daytona Beach; Clyde Middleton, LL. B., West Palm Beach; Secretary, Ralph E. Odum, LL. B., Lakeland; Treasurer, Sidney Taylor, A. B., LL. B., DeLand.

Mr. J. M. Albritton, graduate in the class of 1941, has been employed by the University as Alumni Secretary. He plans to issue an Alumni magazine which will be sent free to all members of the Association.
